DC Operates Dump in Garbage Crisis

By FRANK LaPIERRE

Within hours after the Daly City Council enacted emergency measures to take over the Mussel Rock dump site to alleviate what they considered to be a mounting health problem, Coastside Scavenger Company employes walked off the job in Pacifica.

The Coastside Scavengers' contract with the city of Pacifica had expired on Aug. 1, the same time the Daly City Scavenger Company's contract ended, but talks between the Teamsters Union and Pacifica scavengers had gone on despite Daly City's 28 employes already walking picket lines.

In an unprecedendted action Monday, the Daly City Council without prior warning or consultation with the Teamsters voted 4-0 to open the garbage dump free of charge to the general public at noon yesterday.

On a motion made by Councilman Paul Hupf the city, in reality, took away scavenger President Al Sereni's exclusive franchise for collecting and dumping at the site.

And an ordinance was also passed which allows the disposal of garbage in plastic bags, previously prohibited.

It was learned that the Coastside membership had asked for increases in pay and fringe benefits amounting to some 95 per cent. Neither the union or scavenger officials were available for comment yesterday.

The dump site is owned by the city, which issued Serani a ten-year exclusive franchise for collecting and disposing of refuse.

The Coastside Scavengers also use the Mussel Rock site for dumping their some 165 tons of garbage daily. They are charged by the ton.

Meanwhile, North San Mateo County Health official Reint Lingeman said he had been watching the situation "very closely" since the strike began two weeks ago.

Lingeman said he would not be able to tell there was a garbage strike on "if I did not already know it."

Asked if he considered the strike to be affecting the health and safety of the city's 70,000 residents, Lingeman replied "not as far as I am concerned at the present time.

Following an early morning Daly City meeting on Monday, City Manager David Rowe and other top city officials huddled behind closed doors with Sereni to map plans for operation of the dump.

Sereni and his business partner, Mario Repetto, were hired at $5 per hour to operate equipment at the dump.

It was presumed Sereni's other four partners in the company would continue to service vital facilities around the city such as hospitals, restaurants and some commercial enterprises.

The council turned over the dump operation to Rowe and city attorney Albert Polonsky.

Together, they are expected to work out details of the takeover and legalities concerning enforcement of the ordinance.

As of Monday, the dump was placed under the city's Parks, Recreation and Maintenance Department for supervision, with Parks Chief Charles Vincent in charge.

It was understood that the city had hired, or assigned, five non-union part-time workers to the dump site to assist the operation.

Hours for free public dumping are set for noon to 6:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

Assistant City Manager Raymond Letsinger said the public must observe the posted hours at the dump, at the south end of Skyline Drive in Daly City near the ocean.

Initial reaction from Teamsters Union representatives — Robert Morales and Fernando Bussi — was guarded.

Morales said his strikers would not interfere with people dumping at Mussel Rock "as a means to avoid a health hazard."

But he added he would leave it up to individuals whether they wanted to cross a sanctioned picket line.

Morales expressed frustration over what he called the "failure of anyone at city hall to call us and let us know what's going on — either Letsinger, Rowe or anyone else there."

"So far this whole thing seems to be a one-way street. We are ready and willing to settle this damn thing as soon as possible," Morales said.

Sereni's "final offer" was some 47 per cent in pay and fringe benefits, while the union members' counter demands amounted to some 74 per cent for a two-year package increase.

Flood Project Okayed in Colma

The Colma City Council last week approved an abbreviated Colma Creek flood control project amounting to some $120,000.

B. Fontana & Sons, which submitted the low bid, was awarded a contract to clean out a portion of the frequently flooded creek, heighten the banks about two feet, and place a concrete substance on the walls to smooth the flow of water.

One of the hardest hit areas during rainstorms is the Pacific Nursery on El Camino Real.

The creek runs through this property and has caused thousands of dollars in damage in recent years.

The project will upgrade some 200 feet of creek running through the property, according to the understanding passed by the council.

The council members, in approving only a portion of the project, noted they would determine within the next two or three weeks whether to approve the entire project, costing some $175,630. The city engineer's estimate on the project was $142,050.

East Colma Creek will also be considered in the final proposal.

City Engineer Ed Smith was asked if the Serramonte Shopping Center in Daly City contributed substantially to the flooding.

He answered that two large drain pipes run from the Serramonte areas under Colma's Serra Shopping Center and into the creek to carry considerable runoff.

Councilman Fred Garbini asked if Daly City could be approached to assume part payment for the work. Smith said he thought Daly City's response to such an idea would be cool.

And there is no way to change the routing of the pipes.

Smith said the general philosophy of the county's Flood Control Zone is for individual cities to participate to some extent within their own districts.

This project was in keeping with this philosophy, Smith explained.

In other action, the council considered the parking plight of Hillsdale Boulevard fruit stand owner Victor Bello.

Bello owns a successful fruit and vegetable stand, "which is really doing great since the meat shortage," and his customers are parking cars not only in the stand's lot, but on adjacent property and along busy Hillside Boulevard.

The traffic flow is causing safety hazards to other motorists, the council has been told.

James Bonaccorsi, who leases the land to Bello, said efforts are now under way to create new traffic flows and to have an on-duty special policeman direct traffic in and out of the fruit stand.

He also said an adjacent nursery would soon be available for additional parking, thus easing the crush.

Meanwhile, Bello said "people got to eat" and there was little he could do to "chase cars out of the place."

'Germ Fighter' Nurse Is a First at Mary's Help

Daly City resident Marie Young, R.N., is a germ fighter. On any given day one may find her studying patient charts in Medical Records, checking isolation techniques on the medical floor or peering through a microscope in the laboratory. There isn't one area in the hospital that is free from her scrutiny.

Mrs. Young is Mary's Help Hospital's first infection control nurse. Formerly patient care coordinator on the fifth floor, Mrs. Young stepped into her new role last May and immediately began work on a stringent infection control program for the hospital.

Although controlling the spread of infection always has been a major concern of hospitals, the concept of an infection control nurse is a relatively new one to most hospitals.

As thehospital's official "germ fighter," Mrs. Young is concentrating on three areas of infection control: surveillance of infectious patients, the enforcement of strict isolation techniques and the participation of employes in a personal health program.

In the first area of infection control — surveillance of infectious patients — Mrs. Young works closely with bacteriologist Jim Clavin. He submits a weekly report to Mrs. Young on all patients whose lab tests have shown an infection present. These reports contain the patient's name, date admitted and type of infection detected.

Mrs. Young then checks the patient's chart and confers with nursing personnel to make sure that all measures have been taken to control the spread of the patient's infection. She also acts as a resource person for nursing units and ancillary services which are having infection related problems.

The second part of Mary's Help Hospital's infection control program concerns isolation of patients with contagious diseases. Revised isolation techniques and procedures are being implemented at the hospital under Mrs. Young's supervision.

In conjunction with Geraldine Carver of the Department of Education, Mrs. Young will conduct classes to educate personnel on these techniques in the near future.

Personal health is the third area of the infection control program and a vital concern, according to Mrs. Young. "Employees in contact with patients must be aware that they may be carriers of bacteria," she explained. Therefore, she and Jeanne Tollefson, personnel health nurse, are preparing an educational program on bacteria and personal hygiene for employes.

Mrs. Young makes periodic culture studies of various areas in the hospital. This is done, as Mrs. Young says, "to make sure the hospital is as clean as it looks."

In this aspect of her job Mrs. Young works closely with the Infection Control Committee of the medical-dental staff, chaired by Albert G. Clark, M.D. She meets monthly with the committee and reports on all infections detected in patients during the month.

Mrs. Young has been a resident of Daly City for 25 years. She is a member of the California Nurses Association and the Infection Control Nurses Association of Northern California.

Coast Road Closed by Accident

Sharp Park Road — major east-west arterial of Pacifica — was closed for more than three hours yesterday while tow trucks struggled to move a heavy truck that rolled over in the roadway and spilled its contents.

Traffic had to use either steep Manor Drive or Edgemar Freeway.

According to police, driver Thomas Milligan, 28, San Jose, was headed down the winding road when he lost his brakes. The truck overturned and slid 200 feet before it came to rest on the side of the roadway, spilling its load of gypsum board.

The truck is owned by the Gypsum Dry Wall Supply Co. of Fremont.

A forklift that the truck was towing broke free and rolled over the side. A crane was scheduled to pick up the fork lift today, police said.

S.S.F. Council Studies New Budget Form

South San Francisco city councilmen will hold a budget session tonight to go over the "big-money" departments of the city, including fire, police and the public services department (engineering, streets and sanitation).

Acting City Mgr. Ed Alario said the city budget increase will not be as large as it appeared at first. This year's spending program is being made up as a "program budget" and is not comparable to last year's budget, Alario said.

As an example, he explained, this year's budget contains all the costs and all the revenues, whereas previous budgets would often show only net costs of projects.

Another major change is that total costs are shown for each department. For example, the costs of operating vehicles, and the costs of occupying offices are now shown.

Still subject to comparison, however, are the number of employes, which constitute the major costs of city government.

Recommended additional employes to be scrutinized tonight include: Fire, six to a total of 79; police, six, to 81; sanitation, three, to 21; zoning (new department) one; park, two to 33.

Other recommendations presented at the last budget meeting included: administrative division, one to a total of two; personnel, one to a total of three; purchasing, three, to a total of five; communication division, four to 10; city garage, three to seven, and building maintenance, one to a total of nine.

In all, Alario is recommending that the city work force be increased from 317, now authorized, to 34.

TESTING—The sight of a BART train in the Daly City terminal of the regional transit system is a reality at last. Electricity for the high-voltage third rails which power the trains was turned on Sunday for the San Francisco-Daly City link, the last segment of the 75-mile system to be energized. The first train made a track-inspection run Monday, to be followed by regular test runs between Daly City and the 16th Street-Mission Station the remainder of the week. (Post Photo by John Storey)

D.C. BART Service May Start in October

Bay Area Rapid Transit service may begin between Daly City and downtown San Francisco — but not through the transbay tube to Oakland — sometime in October.

This was the prediction of San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto on Sunday.

Alioto, after conferring with BART officials, said the trains would be on limited runs on the west side of the bay "sometime between October 15 and November 5."

BART's general manager, B. R. Stokes, said he feels the service may start from Daly City in early November.

While the new starting date is some two years later than the original schedule called for, it was good news for city officials, civic and business leaders in Daly City.

A gala barbeque is being planned for September 22 at the Knowles Ave. BART station and all preparations had been firmed up, according to Chamber of Commerce president Frank Spadarella.

But Alioto put a damper on the scheduled September celebration pointing out that he feels the festivities should be postponed until the trains actually start to roll, rather then using only a token BART train into the Daly City city station for that event.

Alioto said there would be two celebrations — one when the trains roll to Daly City and an even bigger event when the transbay tube is opened.

Kavanagh's Apartment Bid Rejected

A small developer who has suffered more than the usual amount of delays appeared to have come to the end of his trail when the Coastal Zone Conservation Commission turned down his appeal for a claim of exemption for a 60-unit apartment in Pacifica.

He is Donald S. Kavanagh of the Edenvale Construction Co. The commission gave him its unanimous decision at their session in Los Angeles Wednesday.

The matter had been held over from the previous week's session, held in Burlingame, at which the commissioners asked Executive Director Joseph F. Bodovitz to look into the circumstances under which Kavanagh's building permit had been approved and was ready for issuance on June 6, 1972.

Bodovitz had found that although the permit was ready, Kavanagh had chosen not to pick it up right away, and was then caught in a moratorium imposed by the Pacifica City Council on all building activity in the west Sharp Park area. (In his appeal to the Pacifica City Council, at the time, Kavanagh had explained that he did not want to spend the money to take out the permit until he could get his financing settled.)

Commissioners based their denial on exemption on the grounds that although Kavanagh's permit had been approved, Kavanagh had done no building on the basis of having the permit. The $49,555 he cited as having spent on the project, they alleged, gave him no proprietory right since the money was spent largely for architectural fees, rather than for any actual construction. The total project, to have been called "Ocean Beach Apartments," would have cost an estimated $1,297,508.

The previous month, the commission had turned down Kavanagh's application for a construction permit, on the basis of the project's bulk and density. Wednesday, the commissioners advised the San Jose builder to redesign the project to fit in more with the commission's standards for coastal construction.

Bodovitz explained that a series of such apartment projects along Beach Avenue in Pacifica would certainly hide the view of the beach from anyone except those living in the apartments. The proposed buildings would have run from one end of the block to the other, he said.

$90 Holdup In San Bruno

A lone gunman took an estimated $90 from the manager of the San Bruno Taco Bell just after midnight on Saturday.

San Bruno police said the bandit, wearing blue trousers and a faded green sweatshirt, ordered Peter Gaudagni of Burlingame to put all his money in a bag.

Gaudagni cleaned out a cash register and a safe, police said, as the holdup man pointed a .22-caliber, blue-steel revolver at him.

Extension Contract OK'd

A $3.1 million runway extension which will enable more departing flights from San Francisco International Airport to lift off and fly out over the Bay rather than in a direct line westward over the Peninsula was awarded on Thursday by the Airport Commission.

The extension will reduce aircraft takeoffs over San Bruno, South San Francisco and Brisbane, and will shift approaching planes some 1,000 feet further east over San Francisco Bay away from Foster City, reducing the noise elements which have plagued the city.

The work is in conjunction with the airport expansion program, and 53 per cent of the funding will be provided by the Federal Aviation Administration.

Essentially, the extension of Runway 28-Rigght and Taxiway C on existing filled land will move the take-off and landing threshold 2,200 feet east of its present location, leaving an overall runway length of 11,870 feet.

Officials said fill for the extension, started eight years ago, has settled sufficiently for paving.

After the paving is completed, the FAA will authorize installation of its new instrument landing system, which Airport Director William J. Dwyer said will allow aircraft to "land in conditions as low as ceiling fog and 700 feet forward visibility and provide guidance for automatic landings."

The extension contract was awarded to L. M. Company of South San Francisco.

3 Pedestrians Hurt In San Bruno Mishaps

It was a bad night for pedestrians in San Bruno Thursday.

Three pedestrians were injured in a series of accidents taking place in less than two hours, and one man is in county jail on a felony drunk driving charge.

In Peninsula Hospital being treated for a fractured skull is 11-year-old Adelina Perez, 876 San Mateo Ave. At about 8 p.m. she was walking in front of her home, when Julia Ann Glenn, 30, San Bruno, was turning into the driveway of the apartment. She apparently stepped on the gas instead of the brake, according to San Bruno police, and crashed through the garage door, injuring the child.

Two people, a mother and little daughter, were crossing El Camino Real at about 6 p.m. last night, on the Angus Avenue intersection — from the International Pancake House to the library.

According to police, in the center northbound lane of the highway, John J. Grimaudo, 41, 130 Parkview Drive, San Bruno, a teamster, came by driving slowly. Apparently, the pedestrians, Mrs. Verena Tabiness, 27, Maryland Place, San Bruno, and her daughter, Tanya, 2, thought the car was going to stop. It did not, and the two were struck by the car.

The mother and child were rushed to Peninsula Hospital where they were treated for contusions and abrasions. Grimaudo was charged with felony drunken driving, police said.

In a third accident, Sheryl Darlene Hayden, 25, 705 Shleter Creek Lane, San Bruno, was treated for possible head injuries at Peninsula Hospital after an accident on her street. According to San Bruno police, she somehow lost control of her car, struck two cars in front of the Shelter Creek Apartments, continued on, went over the curb, and struck a parking sign and light pole before coming to a stop.

Auto Agency Hires First Saleswoman

A woman has established a delicate foothold in the previously all-male world of automobile sales at San Bruno Lincoln-Mercury, 345 El Camino Real.

Ms. Pat LeGette, who has been in auto sales and administrative work since 1968, joined the sales staff about five weeks ago.

Jim Copeland, vice president and general manager of the auto agency, is pleased with the move.

"For some time we have felt the need for a woman's sales point-of-view in our organization," Copeland said. "We need new faces in this business and I think you'll find more women entering it in the future.

Ms. LeGette is the first female sales representative at San Bruno Lincoln Mercury and, as far as Copeland knows, the nly one in San Mateo County.

She was formerly with an auto leasing firm and came to the auto dealership through mutual agreement, according to Copeland.

"She's doing very well," Copeland said. "The customers seem to accept her without much hesitation. She possesses an unusual sales and mechanical knowledge of cars."

Cycle Park Ruled Out

County Offered Coast Site

More than 36 acres of the Milagra Military Reservation — the Pacifica missile site — has been offered to the county for park and recreation use, John T. Brook Jr., county parks and recreation director, reported last week.

Brook told members of the County Park and Recreation Commission that 36.48 acres of the 200 acres still owned by the federal government has been offered at no cost to the county. He said the county must decide on a specific use for the property, however, and submit its intention to acquire the area to the General Services Administration by September 10.

A suggestion by Commissioner Herbert G. Petersen that a motorcycle park might be set up in the grassy area was quickly vetoed by the commission chairman, Ernest Ribera, who commented, "This is right across from my front window."

Brook was instructed to "walk the property" and report back to the commission at a special meeting next Wednesday evening at the Coyote Point Yacht Club, at which time the commission will review final plans for Coyote Point Regional Park.

Brook reported that all hurdles have bene cleared toward development of Coyote Point Park and that bids for the first phase of development of the knoll area, which will be named after former Supervisor William M. Werder, will be opened August 28.

A contract award will be made September 11, and construction should begin on the first phase by September 17. It should be completed by January 15, Brook said.

Construction drawings should be completed for the second phase by August 10, Brook reported, and bids will be opened January 15. The second phase should be completed sometime next spring.

The project, which cost around $1 million, will include landscaping, development of playgrounds and group and family picnic areas with night lighting.

Three new restrooms will be constructed during the first phase.

So far, Brook reported, theenvironmental impact study needed before the park could be developed has gone through some 40 agencies.

The board set dedication ceremonies for "Werder Knoll" and a new county patrol boat, the "William M. Werder," for 11 a.m., September 26.

Roger Young, a member of the county engineer's office, reported that plans for a county-wide bikeways system should be completed in about a month.

Rogers said cooperation has been lacking from cities, which have been asked to submit plans by September 10.

In answer to a question from Brook, Young said the system can be financed from gas tax funds, and additional money is available from other federal sources.

The board agreed to meet with municipal park and recreation commissions form the northern end of the county in October, but decided it would be impossible to meet individually with city commissions because of the lack of time. The Pacific Park, Beach and Recreation Commission had asked to meet with the commission.

No Injury In Crash

A small foreign car plunged down a 200-foot cliff south of Pacifica Friday.

Pacifica firemen reported that when they sped off on their rescue mission, they expected the worst.

Instead, Jean Diesh, 904 Grand Ave., Half Moon Bay, walked out of her car without a bump or a bruise. In fact, firemen reported, she seemed to be in good humor.

She must have hit a wet spot in the road, she told the rescuing firemen, who kept their stretcher in their truck. All they had to do was to walk her up to the roadway.

The accident took place north of Devil's Slide. The car plunged down the bushy hillside, rolled over and landed on the bottom, near a farm, right side up, on all four wheels.

County Gets Heat From SSF Council

South San Francisco councilmen made it plain Monday night that they were unhappy over the Board of Supervisors vetoing their choice for an appointment to the Colma Creek Flood Control Zone advisory board.

"I read about it in the papers and couldn't believe it," Council man Pat Ahern declared. "The supervisors could stack every committee available."

The vacancy had been created by City Mgr. Gale Dreisbach's resignation from his city post. To fill that vacancy, the council, had recommended the veteran city attorney, John Noona. At last Thursday's session, Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald had opposed Noonan's appointment because of what he felt to be the city's apparent opposition to the total $8.4 million flood control plan.

At the same time, the supervisors went along with South San Francisco's recommendation for appointment of Thomas G. Hinojos to fill an at-large position on the advisory committee.

Appointed to the vacancy last Thursday was South San Francieco Councilman Frank Maumini, who purportedly had never expressed any opposition to the flood plan. In fact, Mannini had been touring Europe for the past month.

"The whole thing reeks," Ahern added. "If anyone knows anything about Colma Creek, it's Mr. Noonan."

Mayor Warren Steinkamp blamed the supervisors' action on a talk that Noonan had given the advisory board previously.

"He told a few of the people involved in the project that they were all wrong . . . They felt that he was too strong."

"I don't see how this council can do anything but send him right back," Ahern declared.

Mammini thought that the supervisors merely wanted an elected official on the board, in case there was a need to commit the city on any issues that may arise. He offered to have Noonan sit jointly with him, admitting that Noonan was the most qualified for the advisory board.

Ahern again raised the issue of the $350,000 that the county requested for emergency repairs—then returned to the city after two weeks.

"This is getting to be a Mickey Mouse operation. If they don't want to help us, let them stay back and let us do it ourselves!"

Meanwhile, Steinkemp assured the council that he would write a strong letter of protest to the Board of Supervisors.

Cycle Crash Injures Two

Two 17-year-old Pacificans were injured yesterday, apparently when their motorcycles collided on the site of the old Boy Scout camp south of Pacifica's city limits, above the Linda Mar area.

According to Pacifica firemen, the injured were Rickey E. Griffen of 1047 Anza Drive, and Harold Binsfeld, 1023 Anza Drive.

The firemen said a caller to the Pacifica Police Department made known the youths' plight shortly after 5 p.m.

Access to the area by vehicle is on the Old Coast Highway, from which firemen said they had to clear away abandoned vehicles before they could reach the two youths.

Grandenz Is New Cantor

Cantor Jacob Graudenz has been appointed to serve Congregation B'nai Israel in Daly City, according to President A. Arthur Hirschhorn. In addition to performing cantorial functions at Sabbath services, Cantor Graudenz will assist Rabbi Sheldon Edwards in all religious activities of the congregation.

He also will instruct the Bar-Bat Mitzvah condidates and work with children of the religious school and the junior choir.

Graudenz is the son of Rabbi and Mrs. Samuel Graudenz of Modesto and received his basic training and instruction in the cantorial arts from his father. He received his formal education at the Seattle Hebrew Academy.

N. County Demos Plan Picnic

U.S. Senator Sam Ervin and Mrs. Lady Bird Johnson are two of the famous contributors to the North County Democratic Association's old-fashioned picnic-fund-raiser to be held Saturday, in San Bruno Park. The event, "DEMOCRATS 4 '74," will be held from 11 a.m.-4 p.m.

Mrs. Johnson has sent an autographed sketch of the Johnson Ranch, and Senator Ervin has autographed a copy of the U.S. Constitution especially for the afternoon auction, according to picnic chairperson Norma Corey.

Invitations have been sent to all Democratic candidates for governor and to California's state and national representatives.

San Mateo County legislators Congressman Leo J. Ryan, State Senator Arlen Gregorio and Assemblyman Louis Papan plan to attend. State Senator George Moscone, one of the gubernatorial candidates, has also accepted. Senator Moscone will autograph a picnic poster for the auction. Congressman Jerome Waldie, also a candidate for governor, cannot attend but will send a representative. U.S. Senator John Tunney has announced that he will make every effort to appear.

The NCDA is asking for a contribution to the Association which will entitle the donor to a lunch of hot dogs, salad, coffee and door prizes. Events of the day, in addition to the auction, will include a raffle, entertainment by "Lion" a San Bruno rock group, games for children and a voter registration table.

Tickets can be obtained from any member of the NCDA. For further information call Mrs. Norma Corey.

Bob Collier's gray hair vanished so gradually no one noticed!

Unretouched Photographs Demonstrate Amazing Action of Grecian Formula-16

The first picture shows how gray Bob Collier was before he decided to do something about it.

The next picture was taken after 3 daily applications of GRECIAN FORMULA-16. You can hardly see the difference.

As Mr. Collier continued using it daily, GRECIAN FORMULA-16 gradually built up the natural looking color he wanted. So gradually not even his closest associates noticed the day-to-day change.

Now look at the last picture! See how much younger Mr. Collier looks after 18 days! From now on occasional use will hold his youthful looking hair color.

Remember: the photographs above are absolutely unretouched. The amazing gradual change in hair color was brought about entirely by GRECIAN FORMULA-16.

No other type product works quite like it.

Colorless—Easy to Use

GRECIAN FORMULA-16 is not a harsh coal tar dye but a colorless liquid you apply just like hair tonic. As it grooms your hair, day by day GRECIAN FORMULA-16 builds up color in gradual stages until in two or three weeks you see hair color so natural you hardly remember how you looked when you were gray. Occasional use keeps it that way.

So why look like an "older" man now that there is a masculine way to banish gray hair? Get GRECIAN FORMULA-16 today, $3.50. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Boisterous Session

D.C. Renewal Approved

By FRANK LaPIERRE

It was a session punctuated by threats and catcalls but the Daly City Planning Commission after four months of public hearings unanimously passed two measures that will undoubtedly have far-reaching effects on the future of the county's second-largest city.

After three and a half hours of listening to staff planner John Walker, and outspoken critics of the redevelopment plan, the commission closed the public hearing on the issue and moved for adoption of amendments to the city's general plan. Next the commission voted 5-0 on formation of a redevelopment area around the Bay Area Rapid Transit station on Knowles Avenue.

At one point in the proceedings a heated exchange between Black Panther attorney Charles Garry, a resident of Wellington Avenue, and two members of the commission threatened to erupt into a fist fight.

Garry had accused the commission of steering the talks toward only those issues the commission desired to discuss.

"All you want to do (here) is cross the T's and dot the I's," Garry said and threatened to take the matter to the courts.

As Garry returned to his seat, Commission Chairman Alfred Banfield was heard to mutter, "It's people like you that have made up our minds for us."

Garry wheeled around and asked Banfield to repeat the statement.

When Banfield obliged, the attorney called Banfield a "lousy s.o.b." and said he would meet him outside as the crowd of some 200 persons cheered.

Fellow Commissioner Frank Tardelli interrupted the argument by commenting "For an intelligent man, Mr. Garry, you smell."

Garry rose to the occasion by countering, "Proper English is that I may smell, but it's you who stinks."

This exchange was interlaced with challenges from some members of the audience to fight, either outside the council chambers or inside.

The rhetorical battle ended as fast as it started and the commission went on to adopt the general plan amendment at the urging of Walker.

During the hearing, the commission listened to John H. Denton, a housing and land use consultant for the Original Daly City Protective Association — vocal opponents of the redevelopment proposal.

Denton, who at an earlier meeting filed a long condemnation of the proposal for redevelopment in the older section of Daly City, called the city's "bureaucracy" interested only in "getting this redevelopment juggernaut moving."

He hit at the "sketchy outlines" submitted by Walker, at one point prompting Walker to say, "I take second place to no one in my (planning) expertise."

Denton further charged that the city's plan was nothing short of a "sham complaince with state law" and commented that state law in redevelopment matters was intended to mesh with federal law.

And he cited a lack of relocation policy in Walker's outline.

Later in the same meeting Walker carefully laid out his proposals, under California law, on just how the relocation assistance measures would work and what the duties of a citizens' select committee made up of persons residing in the redevelopment area be required to perform.

Legal aid society attorney Tom Adams backed up Denton's contention that the city's outline fails to comply with either state of federal guidelines.

Walker, however, later advised Commissioner Edward R O'Donnell that in his estimation all criteria had been met and the proposals were in accordance with "the letter, if not the spirit of the law."

Adams and Garry asked for more time to consider the matter and Banfield said the commission had already expended several weeks.

Only one member of the audience, Albert Jenkin, a resident of the target area, urged the commission to adopt the redevelopment plan.

Jenkin said "delay is the cause of Daly City's problems (in the housing area)."

The Rev. Charlie Hamilton of Calvary Baptist Church said he was vitally interested in "where are the people going."

Leo Ryan Pledges Help for Pacifica

Congressman Leo J. Ryan met with the full Pacifica City Council Thursday and promised full support on every issue the council members brought up.

Mayor Aubrey Lumley said that Pacifica's needs can be summed up in one four-letter work — help!

Ryan pledged his full cooperation in pushing through federal aid for the Rockaway Beach small-boat harbor, quipping that, with the speed of federal procedures, he might have to return with a cane and on a guerney to dedicate it.

"Pacifica's future," Ryan declared, "lies in recreation — in being a place for the people of the Bay Area to come . . . I'm with you. If you want a boat harbor off Rockaway Beach, let's get to work on it."

Councilman Don Halverson said that indications are that working hours will be cut drastically within the next few years, and that people will have a good deal of idle time to enjoy recreation.

Ryan added that the completion of Freeway 380 from International Airport to Pacifica is just as important to aid its recreation industry.

Councilwoman Grace McCarthy brought up the proposed Skyline Scenic Parkway, noting that there are not federal parkways, such as a Blue Ridge Parkway, in the West. When Ryan commented that it was a toll road, Mrs. McCarthy replied that "toll is not a dirty word here . . . it may provide the controls over the parkway that environmentalists seek."

Mrs. McCarthy also made the presentation for extending the Golden Gate National Park — now including only parts of San Francisco and Marin Counties — to Pacifica. She noted that the coast from Point Reyes to Pedro Point had once been considered the old "outer San Fancisco Bay."

"The money is there for the park," Ryan noted. "It is just up to us to get some of that . . . rather than have it go to some place like Florida."

Report on Strike Tonight

Progress, if any, in talks to head off a strike of municipal employes in South San Francisco will be reported to the City Council tonight by Ed Alario, acting city manager.

City and union officials met for three hours Friday in an attempt to avoid a strike that could tie up every municipal department except the police.

Departments involved include the city clerical staff, street workers, sanitation, park, and library workers. They are being represented by a joint council of the Marine Engineering Beneficial Assn., the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, and the AFL-CIO.

Having voted to reject the city's latest offer and to authorize a strike call, at a general membership meeting last Tuesday, the city employ leaders are planning to seek strike sanction at tonight's meeting of the Central Labor Council. The council's executive board reportedly would act on the request at a meeting next Monday.

Meanwhile, Local 1507 of the International Association of Firefighters, AFL-CIO, failed by one vote of its 71 members to agree to strike, at a general membership meeting Wednesday night at the Central Firehouse. Under its bylaws, the Firefighters local may strike only if three-quarters of its members agree. The members, however, did reject the latest offer of the city, and negotiations have resumed. A negotiation meeting with the city is scheduled for tomorrow.

Fred Lagomarsino, president of the local, denied reports that the city would be without fire protection in case of a strike.

"There are many ways," he said, "in which the city could be under fire protection at all times."

When asked if such a strike would be illegal, under state laws, Lagomarsino replied that "there are several ways of interpreting that."

City Atty. John Noonan asserted it would be illegal for firemen to strike; state codes allow for settlement by arbitration should an impasse be reached.

Meanwhile, all sides were expressing hope that issues could be settled wothout a strike. Alario and the acting director of the Department of Ecological Development, Hugo Stopopioni, however, asserted that the city could carry on its basic functions with its supervisory workers, in event of a strike.

Alario insisted that the city could not afford to grant the employes' demands, and that South San Francisco employes would be well-paid under the city's offers, in comparison both to neighboring cities and to private industry.

3 Arrested For Robbery

Three Pacificans were arrested in Pacifica in connection with a 12:30 a.m. robbery of the San Bruno Lucky Market on El Camino Real.

San Bruno police identified the trio as:

James A. Rhodes, 27, 712 Claridge Drive, Michael E. Cavalli, 23, 767 Claridge, and Douglas K. Hoff, 21, 767 Claridge.

The police said the three were apprehended by Pacifica authorities about 2½ hours later.

According to San Bruno police, two night clerks were working in the Lucky Store when three men entered the market and at gunpoint forced the clerks to the office, where they were bound and gagged.

Attempts to open a safe failed, police said, but the trio fled with cigarettes, beer and dog food.

One of the clerks managed to reach a phone and asked the operator to call police.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO OUR CUSTOMERS IN DALY CITY, COLMA and BROADMOOR

We have offered our employees what we consider to be a fair and equitable contract totalling approximately 47 percent over the next three years. Our employees, through their representatives, however, in their last written counter proposal, demanded a two-year package amounting to an increase of 74 percent.

As sound businessmen we know that in order to meet such a dramatic increase in salary and fringe benefits we would have to ask the City Council, which sets the rates, for a proportionate increase in our collection rates. And this increase would be borne by you, the public.

We want to be fair to our employees, but we also realize that we have a responsibility to the public to offer the very finest service possible at a fair cost.

To lay all our cards on the table, so to speak, we want you, the public, to know honestly and forthright, what we offered our employees after careful consideration of all issues involved:

1. A 3-year contract.
2. Increase in wages of 39% over the next 3 years.
   76c hourly increase first year:
   Drivers $5.25 per hour and Helpers $4.86 per hour
   40c hourly second year:
   Drivers $5.65 per hour, Helpers $5.26 per hour
   52c hourly increase third year:
   Drivers $6.17 per hour and Helpers $5.78 per hour
3. Upgrade the Health and Welfare Plan. (Total cost to the Company of $66 per month for each regular employee.)
4. Improve the Pension Plan (Total cost to the Company of 20c for each hour worked by each employee.)
5. Total of ten paid holidays annually to each regular employee.
6. Five days Sick Leave per year for each regular employee. Unused sick leave benefits to be paid to employee at end of each calendar year.
7. Three days paid Funeral Leave in event of a death in a regular employees immediate family.
8. One week paid vacation after one year employment.
   Two Weeks paid vacation after two years employment.
   Three weeks paid vacation after seven years employment.
   Four weeks paid vacation after twelve years employment.
   Five weeks paid vacation after twenty years employment.
9. Two 15-minute Coffee Breaks per shift on company paid time.
10. Overtime pay of 1½ times the regular rate for work prior to start of regular scheduled shift.
11. Each regular employee to receive five new Uniforms per year.
12. Annually provide each employee for his use a packing can with wheels.

The company made the above offer on the afternoon of July 31, 1973, the day the contract expired. The employees, members of the Sanitary Truck Drivers & Helpers Local 350 of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers of America, rejected the above offer and refused to report for work the next morning.

We want to end this strike and resume service to our customers. We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience caused by the current strike and are making every effort to end it.

Your cooperation is deeply appreciated.

Hardly a week passes without some mention in this column or the Fifty-Plus Club of Pacifica and that fact isn't simply because the club has an active publicity chairman, it is because this is one club that is almost literally always doing something. Sometimes it is doing two somethings at the same time and that is hard to beat in any league.

PRIME motivating force in this club for senior citizens is its founder and president, Edna Laurel Calhan, who sometimes finds herself directing operations from a hospital room or from a wheel chair, but directing, organizing and plotting she is, no matter how uncomfortable her personal circumstances. What is she planning? Primarily trips, trips of all types, day-long ones, overnighters, train or bus tours, cruises, flights, just about any type of junket imaginable has been considered and conducted by this dynamo who rather obliquely admits to having already celebrated her eightieth birthday.

When the more than 300 paid members are packing or unpacking their luggage they are actively seeing to it that other less mobile senior citizens are getting a bit of fun out of life. Mrs. Elizabeth Funderburg and Mrs. Lucille Rentmeester have been co-chairing a bingo party for residents of the Linda Mar Convalescent hospital the first and third Tuesday of each month for more than five years now and they always are greeted by a capacity crowd of home residents who enjoy the fellowship and are thrilled to receive the prizes and share the excitment of opening a little surprise.

SOME OF THE MEMBERS form a driving corps which transports elderly persons to and from medical offices and delivers patients to the hospitals or helps return them to their homes following release from hospitals.

The major philanthropic undertaking of each year is a big Christmas party given for the Disabled Veterans of World War I who are confined to the Menlo Park Veterans Hospital. Ten years ago, when this program was initiated, the group gave a party for one ward and entertained approximately 90 men. Today the number of such veterans has declined and the club now hosts two wards, with a combined population of 60 men.

EXPENSIVE PRESENTS are not given but the members of the Fifty-Plus club work hard to decorate the tables with festive candles and traditional Christmas items. Each plate is furrounded by goodies, raisins, oranges, individual cans of apple juice, a copy of the Christmas story and a crisp new dollar bill. Club members bring an overabundance of candies, cookies and cupcakes, all homemade, and gallons of ice cream.

The party concludes with distribution of small gifts to each man and a community sing. Most members feel that this is the highlight of the year for these men, many of whom no longer have any ties outside the home.

ON A LESS extensive plan, the members work for the Red Cross and the annual cancer drive and support the San Mateo County Forum and Allied Senior Citizens Club of California. Officers feel that membership in these efforts provides the club with a wider understanding of the problems facing seniors and gives a sense of unity to the world wide efforts on behalf of the population which is over 50 years of age.

According to Mrs. Calhan, the full program of the organization is designed to enhance the harmonious happiness and well being of the members by including and embracing social, educational, philanthropic, spiritual and patriotic values. Hopefully this type of program helps to dispell the devastating loneliness of some and acts to surround each individual with cheerful companions and fosters loyal friendships.

THERE ARE TWO meetings each month. The one in the evening begins at 7:45 on the fourth Tuesday of each month except December, and the daytime meetings are at 10 a.m. the second Tuesday of each month. All gatherings are in the Pacifica Library on Hilton Way at Palmetto Avenue in Sharp Park. For the daytime meetings, members and guests bring a sack lunch and the club provides coffee and cake. In the evenings cookies and coffee are served.

Los Pacificans

The Los Pacificans will visit Sunset Magazine in Menlo Park August 31. They will have lunch at Little House, a recreation center for senior citizens.

The trip will cost $3, including lunch, transportation and the tour of Sunset. Anyone interested should call Karen Norton at the Parks, Beaches and Recreation office, 355-4151.

Good morning, good cooks.

Now is the time for all good recipe columnists to come to the aid of meal planners. In these days of meat scarcity, what we want are ideas for good meatless meals.

Thinking along these lines, this casserole is not only meatless but also tasty and very easy to make. It uses a packaged macaroni and cheese mix, combining it with tuna and sliced fresh tomatoes to make an attractive dish.

MARITIME MACARONI

1 7¼-oz. pkg. Macaroni and Cheese dinner
1 7-oz. can tuna, drained, flaked
½ teaspoon onion salt
¼ teaspoons pepper
Tomato slices
1 cup soft bread crumbs
¼ cup margarine, melted
Grated Parmesan Cheese
Heat oven to 350 degrees.

Prepare dinner as directed on package, except using ½-cup milk. Add the 7 ounces tuna, half teaspoon onion salt, fourth teaspoon pepper; mix lightly. Place half of macaroni mixture in 10 by 6-inch baking dish; top with tomato slices. Repeat layers. Sprinkle with grated parmesan cheese. Top with crumbs tossed with margarine. Bake 350 degrees; 20 minutes. 4 to 6 servings.

THIS NEXT RECIPE has long been a favorite in my family. This rich, thick beany chowder served with crusty French bread and a tossed green salad makes a filling and tasty meal.

DRIED LIMA BEAN CHOWDER

1 cup dried lima beans
1 large onion, minced
3 tablespoons bacon drippings
1 cup water or stock
2 cup raw diced potatoes
4 cups stewed tomatoes, fresh or canned
1½ teaspoons celery salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon minced parsley

Soak the one cup lima beans overnight in water to cover. In morning drain and cover with fresh water and simmer until tender. Cook the one cup minced onion in the three tablespoons drippings until golden brown. Add the stock (I use one cup of hot water with two bouillon cubes) and the two cups diced raw potatoes and cook until potatoes are tender. Combine with the cooked beans and the liquid in which they were cooked, add the four cups tomatoes, the one and one-half teaspoons celery salt, one-fourth teaspoon pepper and one tablespoon sugar. Bring to boil and simmer about 10 minutes. Sprinkle with teaspoon minced parsley and serve.

CORRECTION: in last week's recipt for peach pie for two the amount of salt needed is one teaspoon and the amount of tapioca needed is 1½ tablespoons.

Close Airport, Buy Out Homes

Closing down Half Moon Bay Airport or buying the houses at each end is the choice facing the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors sooner or later.

The county's Airport Land Use Committee last week agreed to pass that word on to their parent body, the Regional Planning Committee, with the hope that the message reaches the Board of Supervisors.

ALUC made that decision after voting to uphold their own state-ordered rules against houses being built within the airport approach zone and in an area subject to intense aircraft noise.

Redwood City Councilman Robert Norris moved to reject the request of Fred Lane and John Callicotte for permission to build a two-story home 3,400 feet north of the runway at Half Moon Bay, on grounds of safety. The motion passed unanimously.

Chairman R. David Martin of Burlingame told agent Michael Aaronson that he could follow the appeal through the RPC and on to the County Board of Supervisors, which has the power homes in the airport approach to overturn the ALUC ruling by a 4/5 vote.

Norris then suggested sendinng along a message calling the Board of Supervisors' attention to the fact that the ALUC, by following state rules, is going to continue rejecting permits for zones, and that the county must "sooner or later" face the necessity of buying these homes "or closing the airport."

Pacifica Man Fights Water Charge

Pacifica resident Joseph Schaller, 344 Fairway Drive, thinks he has a legitimate complaint against the North Coast County Water District — which has kept him and his family without water since August 2.

He has been spending the past few days contacting local, state and national officials, in order to rectify the injustice he feels has been done him.

He came home from an outing with his family Thursday night, he reports, and found the water turned off.

He immediately called the district office and was referred to the police, who asked if there was an emergency. He was then told to await Friday.

Friday, he contacted the water district and was told that the service was turned off because he owed a $17 bill. In addition to the $17, he was told, there would be a $5 turn-on charge.

"Here — I blew my top," Schaller relates. "First they turn off my water behind my back with inadequate warning, then they want to fine me for it."

"I realize I have to pay my bills," he reports. "I am not shirking my responsibilities. But I can't see that $5."

He owns his own home, has his own business in San Francisco and has always been financially responsible, he insists.

"My wife usually pays my household bills, and she could have overlooked it," he says.

Harlan F. Hill, the water district manager, told Schaller that he had sent him a five-day warning that his water would be turned off.

"I never saw it," Schaller says, admitting that he may have missed it in his recent trip out of town. "Why couldn't he have simply phoned me. It would have been much cheaper and more efficient for the water district."

Schaller's attorney advised him to pay the $5 but under protest, and appeal to the water board later. By that time, Schaller says, it was after noon, and Hill was gone for the day — and for the weekend. The office clerks would not accept a bill payment under protest.

Schaller says that if it were just he and his wife, they would hold out. But with their family they have decided to pay — under protest.

Meanwhile, the Schaller family spent a weekend without water. They used the bathroom of Mr. Schaller's San Francisco insurance business. The father stocked up on milk and soft drinks for his daughters, 7 and 11.

Panel Denies Division

An application to divide the 1,400-acre Emma Muzzi property on the San Mateo County Coastside into 28 parcels ranging in size from 40 to 200 acres was denied Monday by the Central Coast Regional Commission in Santa Cruz.

Commissioners indicated they were not satisfied with the intent of future use of the property, expressing concern that affirmative action might encourage development, although the applicant indicated there are no development plans.

The property is situated on the east side of Cabrillo Highway nearly opposite Pigeon Point.

In its action, the commission noted that no utilities are available in the area should the property be developed. Also, it was noted that roads proposed for the 28 parcels probably could not be built as planned because of adverse soil conditions.

The applicant can appeal the regional group's action to the California Coastline Commission.

Two Hurt; Hold Driver

A Daly City woman was arrested on a felony drunken driving charge in San Bruno early Thursday after her car struck and injured two persons unloading a bus.

A San Bruno Police Department spokesman said Barbara Ann Roberts, 30, 575 Villa, No. 20, was westbound on San Bruno Avenue, near Easton Avenue, at 1:46 a.m. At the same time, Vincent A. Bryant, 607 Montezuma St., Pacifica, and Anthony Lee, of Sacramento, were unloading luggage from an old school bus parked facing west on San Bruno Avenue.

According to police, the Roberts car jumped the curb, struck a parking-control sign, and Bryant and Lee. Police said Bryant was treated at Peninsula Hospital for a fractured left leg before being transferred to Chope Community Hospital in San Mateo, while Lee was treated for bruises and released today.

2 Workers Hurt In Bruno Blast

Two men were injured when an electric heater exploded in their faces Friday, according to the San Bruno Fire Department.

Jim Monack, 39, of Sunnyvale, and Bruce MacArthur, 25, 832 Jefferson St., San Mateo, were among the employes at work at California Etching Corp., 1217 Montgomery Ave., when the small portable heater, being used to heat a tank of chemicals used for etching, blew up.

The victims were rushed to Peninsula Hospital where they were treated for facial lacerations and dismissed.

Seven Hurt in Bruno Crash

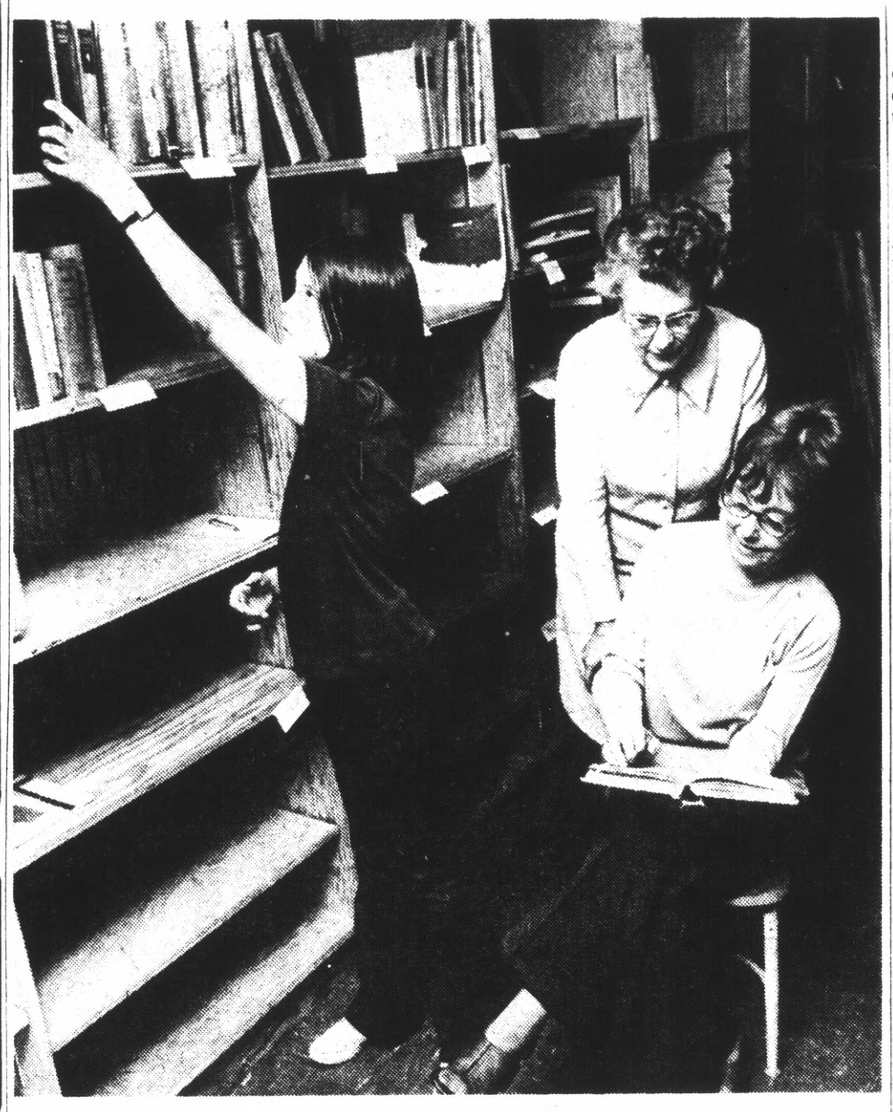
Seven persons — six in one car — were injured, none seriously, at San Anselmo and Santa Helena Avenues in San Bruno Wednesday afternoon.

San Bruno police said the driver of the vehicle with the most passengers, Herminigildo A. Aquino, 31, of Daly City, allegedly failed to stop at a stop sign, and the district attorney's office would be requested to issue a complaint on that charge.

The Aquino vehicle, according to a police department spokesman, was westbound on Santa Helena at 3:13 p.m. the Aquino car, and one driven by Gary D. Kaiser, 23, 529 Fifth Ave., San Bruno, collided, went out of control and struck a parked 1946 model car.

In adition, the Kaiser car struck a wall at 1024 San Anselmo Ave.

Treated for minor abrasions and bruises at Peninsula Hospital, but not held, were driver Aquino and five of his passengers, Angelino Aquino, 53; Mario Aquino, 5; Carazon Aquino, 24; Enrique Aquino, 7, and Clarida Gamboa, 23.



THE ANNUAL Fall Used Book Fair of the Friends of the Daly City Library has been scheduled for September 22. Work has begun as Mrs. Helen Nerbovig, seated right, pricing chairman, inspects a contribution while Mrs. Kathryn Brinton of their fair committee looks on. Picking out a copy of "Little Women" is Amanda DaWick, left. The committee's job is to sort hardback and paperback books, sheet music and records into categories and price them for sale. Contributions may be left at dtpositories at any of the three Daly City branch public libraries.

All advertised meat items are offered for sale subject to availability from our suppliers. Advertised beef prices are effective only if the beef price ceilings remain in effect. Should the beef ceilings be removed, we may be forced to change retail prices in line with changes in wholesale costs during the period that this ad is effective.

Again last week, we compared food prices with the major supermarkets in this area.

"Specials", "total discount", and most other kinds of prices were compared. In this survey of August 3 to 4, Mayfair's overall food prices were lower than eight other top supermarket chains'.

To try to be fair, the comparisons were again with Uncle Sam's list, the same full list of items that the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, uses every month to measure food prices as part of the cost of living.

These comparisons show you could have saved from $.09 to $6.26 on the some $60 worth of basic foods in this list.

With the high cost of living these days, really, can you afford not to buy your food at Mayfair?

Accent Flavor of Summer Vegetables

Summer squash, both the yellow squash and its Italian cousin, the green striped zucchini, are at their prime in markets now, ready to be enjoyed—tender peel, soft seeds and all. Because they require the same cooking time and because the color contrast of the peelings of the two varieties has so much appetite appeal, these two squash are frequently cooked together.

One of the easiest and best ways to cook this vegetable and most others, is by the simple flavor-seal method. This method uses a small amount of corn oil, a little salt and, in the case of stalky vegetables, a small amount of water. The vegetables are covered and cooked just until tender-crisp. Vitamins and minerals, in addition to full flavor, are preserved in this way.

Flavorful Vegetables

1 tablespoon (Mazola) corn oil
3 cups fresh vegetables or 1 package (10 ounces) frozen vegetables
Salt
Pepper
Other seasoning as desired.

To cook fresh vegetables: Wash and drain vegetables, but do not dry. Measure corn oil into saucepan or skillet with tight fitting cover. Add salt, pepper, other desired seasonings, then vegetables. Cover. Cook over medium to low heat just until vegetables are tender, shaking pan several times to prevent sticking. For starchy or stalky vegetables, it may be necessary to add up to three tablespoons of water. Time: 8 to 16 minutes for sliced summer squash, broccoli spears, brussel sprouts, sliced carrots, cauliflower, green beans and spinach; up to 23 minutes for peas and turnips.

To cook frozen vegetables: Measure corn oil into a saucepan or skillet with tight fitting cover. Add salt, pepper and other desired seasonings, then frozen vegetables. Cover. Cook over medium to low heat just until vegetables are tender. (If frozen in block, turn block frequently during first few minutes of cooking and separate vegetables with fork.) Shake covered pan several times to prevent sticking. For starchy or stalky vegetables, it may be necessary to add up to 3 tablespoons of water. Time: 8 to 12 minutes for summer squash, corn, peas, and spinach; 13 to 18 minutes for asparagus, broccoli, green beans, fordhook lima beans, mixed vegetables; up to 23 minutes for baby lima beans.

The following are interesting vegetable combinations and flavor accents: Peas and carrots with tarragon: Follow basic method, using 4 teaspoon dried tarragon leaves with vegetables.

Cauliflower with pimiento and rosemary: Follow basic method, adding 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento and ½ teaspoon dried rosemary.

Fordhook lima beans with garlic and cheese: Follow basic method, adding 3 tablespoons of water with corn oil and using ⅛ teaspoon garlic salt with lima beans. Sprinkle hot cooked beans with ¼ cup finely shredded Cheddar cheese and toss until cheese is melted.

Green beans with basil: Follow basic method, adding ½ teaspoon dried basil leaves.

SKILLET ZUCCHINI

2 tablespoons (Mazola) corn oil
1 small onion, sliced
4 medium zucchini (about 1 pound), cut into 1 inch slices
2 fresh tomatoes, peeled and cut up
1 tablespoon chopped pimiento
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon crushed basil
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 bay leaf

Heat corn oil in skillet. Add onion; saute until lightly browned. Add zucchini, tomatoes, pimiento, salt, basil, pepper and bay leaf. Cover and simmer until zucchini is tender, about 25 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

These biscuits are a good accompaniment to vegetable dishes.

FLAKY BISCUITS

2 cups all purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1-3 cup (Mazola) corn oil
2-3 cup milk

Stir together flour, baking powder and salt in mixing bowl. Blend in corn oil with fork or pastry blender. Add milk; mix until dough forms. Gently knead on lightly floured board, 15 to 20 times. Roll out or pat to ½-inch thickness. Cut with floured biscuit cutter. Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in 450-deg. F. oven 12 to 15 minutes or until lightly browned. Makes 12 (2-inch) biscuits.

Note: For soft biscuits, arrange on cookie sheet with sides touching. For crusty biscuits, place well apart.

Cheese Biscuits: Follow recipe for Flaky Biscuits, adding ½ cup grated cheese to dry ingredients.

Chive Biscuits: Follow recipe for Flaky Biscuits, adding 2 tablespoons chopped chives to dry ingredients.

Fruit for Nutrition

By GEORGE M. BRIGGS, Phd., Nutritionist

Peaches and apricots are in abundance this time of year, making prices their lowest.

These fruits, like all fresh fruit in general, are not only low in calories and fat but rich in numerous vitamins and minerals as well.

One medium yellow peach, for example, supplies the body with 1500 units of vitamin A. That's 30 per cent of an adult's daily allowance and only 45 calories. This makes the yellow peach a far better source of vitamin A than fruits such as apples, pears, grapes or oranges. Make sure the peach is yellow though, as the light colored peaches are not rich in vitamin A.

As with most fruits, the peach is a good source of potassium with over 200 milligrams per peach. It is low in sodium and contains small but significant amounts of iron, vitamin C and many of the B vitamins. Its content is nearly 90 per cent water.

Interestingly, the nectarine is in reality a peach with smooth skin, so its composition is the same.

The apricot is also similar in composition except it contains twice the vitamin A and more potassium. Four to 6 fresh apricots a day provide the adult requirement for vitamin A.

As with most fruit, the vitamin and mineral levels of canned peaches and apricots are about 30 to 50 per cent less than the original product. One reason is because less ripe fruit, and different varieties are used in commercial canning. Other reasons are the high temperatures necessary for canning, the storage time, and the dilution effect of the sugar syrup used in packing.

Bake Crab And Cheese

Creamy Crab Combos, short on preparation time, but long on appeal, are a mixture of crab meat and cream cheese, subtly blended with beer, scooped onto English muffins, topped with cheese and tomato, then baked until the cheddar cheese has melted.

CREAMY CRAB COMBOS

1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese
1 pkg. (3 oz.) cream cheese
½ cup beer
2 tbsp. minced onion
2 tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
2 cans (6½ oz. each) crab meat
6 whole English muffins
12 slices cheddar cheese
12 slices tomato

Soften cream cheese with beer. Mix in onion, Worcestershire sauce and crab meat. Split English muffins in half. (You may toast both sides of muffin under broiler first if you prefer.) Preheat oven to 350 deg. Place 2 heaping tbsp. of crab meat mixture on each muffin. Cover with slice of tomato and then slice of cheese. Bake in oven for approximately 10-15 minutes. Serves 6.

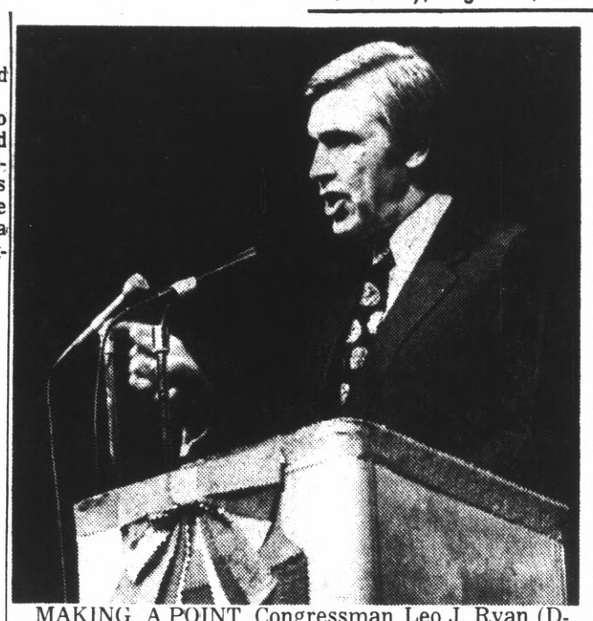
Cow Palace Tax Bill Clears Hurdle

Assemblyman Louis J. Papan (D-Daly City) has announced that his Assembly Bill 2475 to allow Daly City and the city of San Francisco to tax the Cow Palace has cleared the Assembly Ways and Means Committee by unanimous vote. The measure now goes to the floor of the Assembly.

Under present law the Cow Palace is exempt from city and county taxation because it is owned by a state agricultural association owning land in and representing more than one county. There is no other similar exemption anywhere in California. The association is required now to pay only a sales or use tax on concessions and rental contracts.

"Daly City and San Mateo County, along with the city and county of San Francisco, are denied several thousand dollars each year in business license and admissions tax monies as a result of this ludicrous taz exemption.



MAKING A POINT, Congressman Leo J. Ryan (D-Burlingame) talks about life in Washington, D.C., to a student audience at South San Francisco High School this week. Ryan is home this month during the summer adjournment of Congress.

Good Businessmen Stick Close to Their Estimates

By LORENE Beasley
Better Business Bureau

Many people have the mistaken impression that an estimate is a firm price. The Better Business Bureau receives daily calls from irate consumers complaining that they had been given an estimate on a piece of work before the service was done and when the bill arrived it was a great deal more than the quoted price.

What action to take on such complaints depends upon the type of service performed. The estimate should be an approximate price for a service given to the consumer so he will have a fairly good idea of what he can expect his final bill to be.

While a merchant or serviceman in most cases does try to stay within the estimated price quoted it is not always possible for him to do so. For instance, an estimate on a paint job should be fairly close to the final bill as an experienced painter should from experience know what his costs will be.

However, on a transmission job, an estimate can be entirely off if when the unit is taken apart internal parts are badly worn and need replacement, thus upping the price.

The Better Business Bureau looks with suspicion on any firm which consistently underestimates jobs. A firm always should try to give a fair estimation and not quote a low price simply to get the job.

As in all types of business, a small minority of firms make a habit of underestimating jobs.

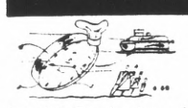
For Today's Woman



By Carol Drake
Food Consultant

A quick Sunday brunch favorite at our house is Bel-air Hash Brown Potatoes, seasoned with salt, pepper, onion flakes, vegetable flakes and fried in a little fat. Served with the prepared tube biscuits and jam, oven-cooked bacon and eggs, it's a hearty meal with staying power.

When you cook pork sausage links or patties, add a few tablespoons of cold water; cover and simmer 10 minutes. Keeps them plump and juicy. Uncover and let sausage brown before serving.

* * * * * * * *

Larger pieces of frying chicken can be partially cooked by parboiling before frying. It's a way to keep chicken tender inside and crisp outside. Let pieces cool before you dip in egg and cracker crumbs to fry. Straining beaten egg before dipping helps the crust adhere better during cooking.

Simmer sliced peaches with a few whole cloves and a stick of cinnamon for ten minutes. Cool and serve with roast pork, beef or chicken.

Tom Jones After-Dinner Guest At Famed Saluto's

Superstar Tom Jones and his party of eight were recently guests at Saluto's in Burlingame. The star savored Saluto's delicious oysters, shrimp cocktail, and spaghetti and meatballs at his waterfront table . . . Owner Adrian Stickney didn't forget the view when he built The Shirt Tail, the flagship of his restaurant chain bearing his name in Palo Alto. The main dining room overlooks a scenic outdoor rock garden . . . Planked Chataubriand, Sauce Bearnaise prepared by master chef Paolo Bermani is a favorite of the many celebrities who dine regularly at Doros . . . Prime rib cooked in rock salt is the house specialty at Beardsley's lounge and restaurant, a Burlingame landmark formerly known as Bob's on Broadway. New owners Les Hylton, Jack O'Brien and Pat Finnegan have put chef Al Evans in charge of the luncheon and dinner offerings: Joe Burton and John Dukes head up the entertainment in the evenings on piano and bass . . . Phil Lehr's Steakery in downtown San Francisco is a discovery for steak lovers. "The Straws" is a new duo on the Foster City musical scene, and you can see and hear this group belt out the melodious strains of red hot blue grass on Friday nights, from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight, at the Straw Hat in Foster City. "Snake Oil Sam" (Bill Clark) plays the 12-string guitar and kazoo, while "Whiskey Whisker Dan" (Dick Hein) plays the six-string guitar and musical saw. No Parking Problems At Down Under

Perhaps you have a favorite restaurant but haven't dined there lately because of nerve-racking parking problems. That's an unknown quantity when dining at the Down Under on Taylor Street. A total of ten garages and parking lots, circling a two square block area, are available. Sorta adds a great deal to exactly what it takes to make dining out, either for luncheon or dinner, an occasion sans frustration . . . Over the years, the French Corner restaurant at the Hilton Inn, located at he International Airport, has gained a reputation for superb continental cuisine and good service. Nick Gust About To Raise The Curtain

The curtain is about to go up on Nick Gust's new Pacifica restaurant venture, located on the lower level of the structure which also houses Nick's fabulous Moonraker, and directly across the street from NICK'S Restaurant and his Sea Breeze Motel. a 2000-foot beach frontage along the shores of Rockaway Beach, which is all lighted up at night, the restaurants offer a fantastic view of the rolling surf while dining and relaxing over cocktails. The new restaurant name and theme is still a secret, says the prominent restaurant owner. So keep an eye on Bright Lights for more news on this. It all sounds very intriguing. In the meantime, have a happy time any time at Nick's Restaurant and Lounge, where the Steve Romano Combo displays master musicianship, Wednesdays through Sundays, joined by Pacifica's super star, Mary Ann Hay, who puts heart in songs that have appeal for all age groups. Steve Romano's rendition of "Born Free" is a real applaud-getter, and the new P.S. system gives it the added sound boast. Over at the Moonraker Don Kelly caresses the organ keys with an educated touch while guests dine on gourmet continental dishes and sip exotic drinks.

Whistle Stop Features Variety Of Sound

Live entertainment has worked out real well for Leo Martay, owner of the Whistle Stop in Belmont. Initiating the policy only a few weeks ago, Leo's customers now expect to be entertained with a variety of sounds every Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Quite a crowd was gathered here around midnight Saturday night to hear a trio of young musicians called The Cast . . . Would you believe: Joe Ercoli of the Leaning Tower, South San Francisco, is already taking reservations for Holiday parties planned for the two elegant banquet rooms. Because the party slate was so filled up last year, many ardent admirers of this popular Italian restaurant aren't taking any chances of being left out this year. After all, what's wrong with planning a Christmas party six months in advance! . . . Many out-of-towners who flock to the Peninsula to escape the business rush and deadlines appreciate the casual, relaxing atmosphere of the Villa Hotel in San Mateo, which is situated in the center of the Peninsula action. Nearby are the San Mateo County Fair Grounds, Bay Meadows Race Track, Hillsdale Shopping Center, Marine World, Candlestick Park, and only a few minutes from the San Francisco International Airport. The Villa Coffee House offers service 24 hours a day and features an all-new menu which includes dinner specials of international flavor Mondays through Fridays.

Celebrities Meet At Scotty's

The prime ribs of beef at Scotty Campbells, in Redwood City, are as tender as the welcome smile on the face of hostess - co-owner Mary Lou Fox (and being able to cut your prime ribs with a fork isn't something you will experience in all restaurants). Stars of stage, screen, television and radio are frequent diners here, as well as prominent political figures . . . For "dough" you can't beat: The pizzas served at Enrico Romano's Italian restaurant in Pacifica. There are ten different varieties and three sizes. Chicken, veal specialties, fish, choice beef cuts and popular Italian dishes are also featured. A select wine list is available for those who wish to make their meal a banquet . . . Price for a round-trip fare is $3.50 (tickets are currently on sale) and includes refreshments on the bus. A savings on fare can be had by buying season bus tickets. THE LOOK ALIKES — Or "Boys will be girls" and act the part. Billie and Johnnie, two talented gents who are currently featured in Finocchio's colorful "Ziegfeld Follies" revue, are solid smash hits.

Finocchio's Belly-Dance Number

The new belly-dance number by the Eve-ettes chorus line at Finocchio's transports audiences to the Near East, where this type of entertainment is a favorite. Physical culturist Magana Baptiste choreographed the number and showed dancers Estuardo Mora, Pat Montclair, Bobby Di'Castro, Maria McCoy and Reggie Dahl how this "near Eastern art form" is done . . . Arby's, the rapid-service restaurants specializing in roast beef sandwiches and dinners, is now offering a special 99-cent dinner certain to please. This dinner special includes a tasty roast beef sandwich, French fries and salad and is available from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. every day of the week. The offer is good only at the Arby's locations in Millbrae, South San Francisco, San Jose, Sunnyvale, and Mountain View . . . Connoisseur wines, both the finest imported and the most delicate domestic, are served at Frank Torres Montara Beach Hotel-Restaurant, located just south of Devil's Slide on Highway One in Montara. The vintages are served in chilled glasses to add to your dining pleasure. Such dishes as Fritatta a la Genovese, Steamed Salmon, Abalone Steak, Hearts of Artichokes Omelette are dishes that Frank and Fannie believe will have special appeal to your appetite. Pappas Rellenas (Peruvian dish) served with green salad is a winner here.

"Our Omelets Are Omnipotent"

The Hountalas Family, who have been hosting at San Francisco's Ocean Beach since 1906, have opened their newest jewellbox, Upstairs at the Cliff House. Overlooking the Pacific ocean and occupying a nostalgic site that goes back to the 1850's, Upstairs at the Cliff House has already acquired a reputation as the "Tiffany's of the Omelet Palaces." "Our omelets are omnipotent," boast Danny and Johnny Hountalas, who claim an omelet for every mood — forty on the roster. Versatile Barry Rich mixes folk and all phases of the blues during the nighttime hours. Barry is also Cantor at Peninsula Temple Sholom in Burlingame . . . A great deal has been said adout the Sunday brunch at the Holiday Inn, South San Francisco. But the conversation around there these days has revolved around the newest item to be added to the buffet brunch. It's the Spanish Omelette — and it's truly delicious! . . . Rome is noted for its great restaurants and fine Italian dishes. When it comes to dining out in the Bay Area, there's a second Rome right in San Francisco — Bruno's in the Mission District. Chef John keeps a pipeline going with his chef friends in Italy. Any and everything new as well as old, established recipes get back to John and embellish the Bruno menu. When pastas and the like are suggested, the road points at Bruno's.

Whiskey Hill Books Bishop Band

Bishop, a group which needs no introduction to Peninsula music fans, has returned to headline nightly, Tuesdays through Saturdays, at downtown Burlingame's Whiskey Hill. Manager Dick Volonte says Butch Wacks and The Glass Packs return on Sunday, August 19, to perform in concert . . . Erik Pederson, general manager of the Rodeway Inn, South San Francisco, now features live entertainment every night of the week. Marqueed in the Golden Rooster Lounge five nights (Tuesdays through Saturdays) are The Murphys, a well-known lounge act from Australia. Providing the dance sounds on Sundays and Mondays, the Bantams . . . A nice spot for sippin' during the cocktail hours is the new Penguin Lounge in Burlingame. Owner Angelo Lena makes certain that a variety of hors d'oeuvres is always on hand. This club is the action spot for fans of guitarist Mickey Frizzell, who packs the house Tuesdays through Saturdays . . . At Vince's Italian and Seafood restaurant, "famous for good food" takes on meaning whether you partake of Luncheon Special, dinner or a huge hamburger on French bread. The a la carte menu ranges from appetizers to desserts. Vince's Special (a mixture of ground steak, spinach and eggs), Chicken Cacciatore, Veal Parmigiana, and Baked Fish are among the culinary accomplishments served here.

Airport Expansion Is Fought

The Environmental Pollution Committee of the San Mateo County Medical Society today supported the action of the San Francisco Ecology Center, Friends of the Earth and numerous other organizations and individuals in their filing of a petition with Superior Court of the State of California for the purpose of preventing the planned expansion of the San Francisco Airport.

Committee Chairman John W. McKean, Jr., M.D., stated that this action was based on the committee's support of the Federal Environmental Protection Agency's policy regarding air and water pollution standards to be achieved by 1977. In the opinion of the committee it would be difficult to achieve these standards and the further expansion of the San Francisco Airport would make the achievement of the standards impossible.

The committee's objections are based on the specific increases which would be realized in air pollution, water pollution and noise pollution and congestion in traffic and population. All these factors are detrimental to health and are already present in unacceptable levels.

Heart Assn. Net Tourney Sept. 8-9

The third annual Tennis-For-Heart Tournament, with grand prizes, conducted by the San Mateo County Heart Association and sponsored by local financial institutions and merchants, will be September 8 and 9.

Competition is planned in men's, women's and mixed doubles for novice, intermediate and advanced players in round robin play.

Each team will play at least three games in the opening round with winning teams advancing to the second round at the College of San Mateo and local high school courts. Scoring will conform to the Van Allen Scoring System (VASS). Team entry fee is $16. All proceeds from the tournament will benefit the San Mateo County Heart Association.

Mike Tyree, tennis pro, will act as grand marshall with the assistance of the Millbrae Tennis Club.

Trophies will be awarded to winners in each flight and all entrants will be eligible for the grand prize drawing featuring several tennis vacations for two. Entrants also will compete for merchandise prizes and gift certificates donated for this event.

Chairman Frank Lindstrom noted that last year's record tournament of 100 teams probably will be topped this year.

Entry blanks now are available. Copies or more information may be obtained by calling the association at 342-5511 or writing to 323 Villa Terrace, San Mateo 94401.

Winners at Fair Named

Two South San Franciscans and one Burlingame resident were the winners of "old-fashioned holidays" at The Times San Mateo County Fair and Fiesta booth.

Winners of trips for two to their choice of Harrah's Reno, Harrah's Tahoe or Carmel Highlands Inn: R. L. Little, 418 Granada, South San Francisco; Mrs. William Coon, 501 Valverde Drive, South San Francisco; and Clay Rice, 1215 Bellevue Ave., Burlingame.

Each winner will also receive $50 cash, and a bonus of $50 for those who are Times' subscribers.

Thousands of fair-goers visited The Times' booth to spin the "Personality Wheel" and register for the "old-fashioned holiday" prizes.

New Pipes At Airport

The Army Corps of Engineers has announced it is considering issuance of a permit to San Francisco International Airport for construction of two drainage lines discharging into the bay.

The public has until Sept. 4 to comment on the proposal, according to Col. J. L. Lammie, district engineer at 100 McAllister St., San Francisco.

The drainage lines would be placed near the area where a recently filled runway extension is now being readied for paving.

The two corrugated metal pipes would be 12 and 48 inches respectively, replacing three existing 24-inch outfalls, which would be removed.

The airport representative states that dredging would not be required. The pipes would be supported by wooden bents where they project over water.

Ray Lunny III — Like Father, Like Son

Le Pacini

Good Hands

Ray Lunny III impressed us with his seventh round knockout of Jimmy Robertson at the Cow Palace recently.

LUNNY gave the recent lightweight title challenger a boxing lesson in the purest sense of the expression. It was evident from the second round that Robertson was in the bag. He just couldn't cope with Lunny's fast hands, quick feet and general cleverness.

We never had the opportunity to see Lunny's father fight, but old timers tell us that the former pride of San Francisco as fashioned his son in his image; which, say the old timers, is one helluva good image.

Of course we don't know yet if Lunny can take a really good punch or combination of punches, but we may never have to find out. One gets the feeling that he really doesn't ever have to get hit solidly if he doesn't choose to, but we also guess that he can take a punch because of his youth, his super condition and his impeccable living habits.

CAN LUNNY knock a man out? Well, he already has seven KO's and TKO's in 13 wins. Early in a career, of course, knockouts always come much easier. But there are several factors involved here. One, if Lunny can keep winning and looking good, he doesn't really have to knock anybody out and shouldn't have to take the puncher's chance that being that the puncher also must stick his chin out more than occasionally and risk a knockout to himself.

Two, Lunny has been having some problems with sore hands. If he can win big with a jab perhaps he shouldn't risk his hands with a lot of hard banging. Finally, those old timers again tell us that though Ray Lunny II didn't have many KO's on his record he could punch with the best of them when he felt it necessary. It was always his philosophy, however, to win with a minimum of damage to himself; i.e., don't slug it out. That is a very reasonable attitude and perhaps son takes after father in that attitude and in that physical skill as a hard puncher when he must be.

ALL OF THE philosophizing aside, we must say that Lunny has learned his lessons well. He's the best schooled young fighter we've seen in 20 years, going back to the days of a tremendously clever lightweight out of Oakland named Johnny Gonzalez. Gonzalez, who retired in 1959 at age 29, never got a shot at the title. Obviously, we think Lunny will.

A COUPLE of months ago the Sporting News ran a story concerning the growing popularity of American football in Japan. A wealthy Japanese industrialist who was in World War II has been pushing it. The story went that he watched Americans play the game in prisoner of war camps and was impressed with the team work and competitiveness it took to play the game, qualities, he felt, that Japanese pilots never had. He felt and still feels that the Japanese youth can benefit by such an education as American football can give them along these lines.

What interested us most about the story, however, is that the Japanese industrialist is a former kamikaze pilot. Who ever heard of a FORMER kamikaze pilot? On the other hand, now that we think of it, a living kamikaze pilot WOULD be interested in teamwork, wouldn't he?

JUST A REMINDER that all the Giants really need to get back into contention even at this relatively late date is a left-handed relief pitcher . . . a good one. Much easier said than done, incidentally.

STATISTICAL CORNER: If you're interested in a career comparison of the two winningest active pitchers in baseball going into this season, here's a breakdown:

JUAN MARICHAL — 12 full seasons in majors, one part; 424 games, 3,236 innings, won-loss record of 227-125 (.645); ERA, 2.78; 2850 hits, 2194 K's, 653 walks; broken down, an average per nine innings of 7.9 hits, 6.1 K's, 1.8 walks.

BOB GIBSON — 12 full seasons, two parts; 448 games, 3,341 innings, won-loss record, 225-141 (.615); 2.79 ERA, 2764 hits, 1,113 walks, 2,786 K's; broken down, an average per nine innings of 7.5 hits, 7.5 K's, 3 walks.

For you Designated Hitter buffs, a reminder that Baltimore's Tommy Davis, hitting confortably over .300, is the only DH in the top ten of any major offensive category.

Yankee southpaw reliever Sparky Lyle is getting all the publicity, but Detroit southpaw reliever John Hiller is above him, up with him or just behind him in every statistical category.

SEVERAL COLUMNS AGO we wondered why umpires couldn't be farmed out just like players are who are having bad years.

Theoretically they can be, explains Chub Feeney, president of the National League. But that theoretical aspect of the question is the catch.

THERE ARE occasionally cases where an umpire is ill or injured and a minor league ump is brough up to take his place, and then must return to the bushes when the regular ump returns. Ther are at the moment four young umpires under contract to the National League who have been optioned to minor leagues, their salaries being paid in part by the National League. They eventually will come up to the big leagues.

But Feeney knows of no case where an umpire actually has been farmed out once a season begins because of his incompetence.

"I can't imagine such a situation arising," says Feeney. "These people are judged for their competence before they're brought up and most of them have quite a bit of experience in the minor leagues."

THE LOGICAL ANSWER to that statement, of course, is that players, too, are judged for their competence before they are brought up and many of them have quite a bit of experience in the minor leagues.

Perhaps the explanation, in the end, is that while players are the responsibility of a club, of its owner, general manager, manager, etc.,—in other words, the responsibility is diffused and divided — an umpire is the sole responsibility of the president of the league. It is much less embarrassing for a lot of people to admit a mistake than one person. Especially when that one person is a leader of all the teams and when the mistake is from a figure of authority who must demand respect.

IT IS HIGHLY unlikely, therefore — even though theoretically possible — that we will ever see an umpire shipped out to a lower league once he has been placed on the regular umpiring staff of a big league.

LOCAL NOTES: Four Pacifica kids recently were named to the San Francisco Colt League All-Stars from Oceana were Art Piccolotti and Ed Spence and from Terra Nova, Rich Straftull and Dean Hallgren.

Contests Highlight DC Playground Action

ABRAHAM LINCOLN — Congratulations are in order. Greg Zatcoff did a great job when he won the boys' division in the citywide hula hoop contest. His brother Brad came in second. The hula hoops are now flying on the playground as everyone challenges them.

The carroms tournament was rough as contestants battled around the clock in what seemed a marathon event. Winners were Tony Rivero, Mike Casperson, Sam Casperson and Allen Hauverness.

Anyone interested in a BART trip and picnic should contact the recreation leader.

COLMA — The upset of the summer occurred last week when Little Jeff beat Colma 7-6 in broom hockey. The Little Jeff club scored a goal in the overtime period. The Colma "Whackers" were led by Nicky Huertas, Dan O'Shea, Mark O'Shea, Mike O'Shea, Greg Taylor and Steve Resa.

Colma evened its record by defeating Junipero Serra 5-2. The return of "Librarian" Earl Woods made the difference. Earl was great on defense. He also scored two of the Whackers' goals.

The carrom ladder and Ping-Pong ladder continued to be climbed. Nicky Huertas, Argie England, Roberta Martini, Diana Maxwell, Papa Woods and Dave Gamack were the main challengers.

The Alfred E. Newman Award goes to "Light Bulb" Curry. This young lad was continuous with his great ideas for playground fun.

DANIEL WEBSTER — Last week Daniel Webster split a softball doubleheader with Westmoor Park, losing the first game 6-5 and winning the second 8-6. Outstanding players for Daniel Webster included George and Pete Martin, Dave Hirsch, John Drocco and Ron Spinetti.

Daniel Webster also defeated Westmoor Park in a touch football game. Frank Coclough and Mike Montague were outstanding.

A strikeout tournament is in the making at Webster. Interested boys should contact the recreation leader.

F. D. ROOSEVELT — Last week at FDR was highlighted by a double elimination carroms tournament. Mike Lewis finished in third place; however the battle for the championship was quite a game between Jerry Lewis and Clay Troxler. Lewis was leading through most of the game but Clay got hot and cleaned out the board. Nevertheless, Jerry was crowned the champion because Clay failed to "call the pocket" on his final shot, the eight ball.

Other outstanding play was turned in by Marty Sands, Sammy Hernandez and Joe Tavita, who came very close to upsetting Jerry in the semi-finals.

Last week's trip to Cull Canyon was enjoyed by Bill and Fred Gurr, the Hernandez family and "CJ" Amoroso, just to name a few. Information on a trip to the East Bay to ride BART will be available soon.

JUNIPERO SERRA — Ping-Pong tournament winners are David Ashmore for the 13-year-olds and older and Larry Smith for 12-year-olds and younger. Close runnersup were Daryl Ashmore, Phil Matonsich, Mike Monglia and Louis Spahn.

The broom hockey team for the season is 3-3. Some of the stars include Tony and Jeff Ternello, David Ashmore, Mike Monglia, Joe Angulo, Mike and David Martin, Jim and Pat Gallagher, Rob Peacock and Pat Lorenzo.

The Paul Phalen Award this week is given proudly to Joe Anzaloni for playing basketball, chess and Sorry at the same time. Joe is also one of the better carroms players, beating all competition. Tony Anzaloni is doing a fine job following in his older brother's footsteps.

A carroms tournament is in planning for the future with many talented signups, such as Jeff Ternello, Joe Anzaloni and David Ashmore.

Special thanks is given to Lori Valls who helps with all the important paperwork. Rich Matonich who is Junipero Serra Schools usher on movie and cartoon days and to Tony and Jeff Ternello who are the "morning greeters" every day.

LITTLE JEFF — The "Jeff Pioneers" broom hockey team record stands at two wins, two losses. They were defeated recently in a rematch with Junipero Serra Park; however, Danny Mendoza, Clay Younger and Ron Portillo showed outstanding skill and speed on the court. Aided by Val, Vic and Ed Gonzales the team squeezed by Colma 5-4 after a sudden-death playoff.

Little Jeff split a softball doubleheader with Marchbanks Park, winning the first game 10-3 but trailing 12-10 when action ended in the second. Team captains Ed and Val Gonzales were assisted by Mike Smith.

A Ping-Pong contest was held in which Chuck Sherman took first place in the boys' division after battling it out with George Desperati, a favorite in the competition. Dorian Garibaldi held out for first in the girls division against tough second place competitor Lisa Goodman.

Dorian, Little Jeff's hula hoop champ, went to the citywide contest held recently at Westmoor Park and returned as Daly City's number one hula hooper.

Future events include a bike day and possible bowling and ice skating trips.

LINCOLN PARK — Bananas, bananas, love those bananas! After the ever-popular carroms tournament last week, a banana-eating contest was held First prize was a dozen bananas.

Today there will be a Ping-Pong tournament for all ages if a Ping-Pong ball can be found. Remember to drop in Thursdays at the park and see what's cooking. Cleo is still attempting a burnt-free, rock-hard cookie.

OLYMPIA SCHOOL — Olympia playground has not been overpopulated by any means these last few weeks. An open invitation is extended to any and all children especially in the Olympic section of Westlake. Come on down and enjoy playing kickball, carroms and strikeout.

In the "Battle of the Paddle" Dee Dee O'Gorman defeated a tough competitor, Debbie Young. Dee Dee is the champ for the week in the girls' division on the Ping-Pong table. In strikeout, the team of Mike Stack and John Feeley defeated Doug Price and Tommy McNab to take honors for the week.

Everybody at Olympia School said hello and wished a quick recovery to Brenda Soirz, who was injured a few weeks ago and is at home recovering.

PALISADES PARK — The watermelon-eating contest was won by Cheryl Stevens and Tom Orloff. The prize — watermelons. The hula hoop contest saw Cheryl Stevens, Rhonda Spinrod and Christina Amicarelli win first to third in the girls' division and Mark Barro and Tom Adair take the boys' division. Cheryl and Valerey Stevens represented Palisades in the Daly City hoop-off.

There will be a chess tournament for the younger set today and chess for the older set Friday.

VISTA GRANDE — Vista Grande's softball team brought its record to three wins and five defeats as it clobbered Woodrow Wilson 19-6. Everyone did a good job with a 33-hit attack.

Keith Jacobs' 6-for-6 led the way, with Tim Tompkins adding five hits, Ken Bates, Francisco Ruiz, James Keys, Arthur Diaz and Victor Ruiz all had three apiece. Carlos Pinnace added two, while Bob Ferrari had two home runs and five RBIs. The "Gang's" team batting average now has climbed to a blistering .353.

Last week's barbeque featured Rene Peppers eating the most watermelon, with Michaelle and Robin Costello, Michael and Michelle Washington, Lisa Vera and John Perez all a close second. Other participants included Hugho Ruiz and Joseph Wilson. The last barbecue of the summer will be tomorrow at 12:30 p.m.

WESTLAKE SCHOOL — Ping-Pong, carroms and checkers have been the most popular activities here. The most active participants have been Diane Fenech and Kirk Carrillo; these two eagerly await for the doors to open each day. Diane is also among the carroms participants; presently she is number one on the carroms ladder. Nancy Ginesi and Susan Sylvester are also near the top.

Westlake School proudly announced its own Susan Sylvester as 11 and under Daly City hula hoop champion.

The weather has been ideal for kite flying. Diane Fenech was able to fly hers for 2½ hours with 750 feet of string. Diane has learned to be cautious about kite flying since it once almost took her flying.

WOODROW WILSON SCHOOL — Activities at Woodrow Wilson drew to a close last Friday with the first weekly barbeque. Cooks for the day were Patrice and Timmy Bender, who judiciously presided over the coals.

In the world of softball, Woodrow again went down in defeat to an overpowering Vista Grande team 19-6. To date, Woodrow's two victories have been over Vista Grande, while Vista Grande likewise has defeated Woodrow twice. This week's game will break the tie.

In other ties the "Best Fisherman" of the Mt. Tamalpais contest was won when Gary Mecallef edged out Joey Bender for the prize. It should be noted that Bender accepted the defeat gracefully after losing close games of carroms and Ping-Pong, which were tie-breaking events.

Happy birthdays went to Jon and Jerry Richardson, who recently celebrated their birthdays and to Timmy Bender and Gabriel Sandino, who celebrated last week.

Westmoor HS Issues New Schedules

Westmoor class schedules for the 1973-1974 school year will be mailed to students' homes the week of August 20, according to Pablo Perez, assistant principal-guidance for Westmoor High School.

Students who need to change their programs because they desire to enroll in the Work Experience Education Program, classes taken in summer school, program errors or any questions about their class schedules should telephone Westmoor High School, 756-3434, to make an appointment with their respective counselors.

The counselors will be available August 30 but students must have an appointment. Students new to Westmoor should telephone the school for an appointment to enroll on this date.

All students new to Westmoor are also invited to attend the school's annual orientation assembly in the boys' gym August 30 at 8:30 a.m. Student body officers will explain the co-curricular school program and conduct guided tours of the school.

League Leads Shaky in DC Softball Pennant Chases

The Skyline Plaza Jug Shop, behind the three hit performances of "Brooks" Phalen, "Wheels" Ward and "Krazy" Kearns defeated Rolland Soul City 10-5 to tie for the lead in the adult "A" Softball League sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Division. Mike Furtch led Soul City with two hits.

Castle Street Nursery remained in a tie for first by "bugging" P.T. and T. 9-5. It was a case of the booming bats as Vince Leveroni, who hit a grand slam homer, and Bob Rankin, who added a two-run job for the Nurserymen.

The Good Time Boys kept themselves close to the league lead by upsetting the Hillside Master Batters 8-4. Pete Gomez and Bob Torre led the hitting attack and Andy Themoleas and Lou Matteucci did a good job in the field.

The Misfits picked up their second win by turning over Tippy's 17-5. Willie Galea and Sam Gurule had three hits and drove in three runs apiece.

In the final weekly game, Flower-Rite knocked Milio's Misfits from the undefeated ranks as they dazed the Misfits 7-2.

Ed Cordero was left the only undefeated team as they defeated Melody Toyota 15-10. The Chevy men were led at the plate by Doug Gray, Bruce Heise, Larry Watts and James Carter.

Long's Drugs squeaked by Bayshore Baptist 3-2 to remain close to the league leaders.

"B" LEAGUE WEST — Thunder struck in the west as it downed the Turf Club 17-4 to claim the undisputed lead in the Western Division.

Joe Pulaci was 5-for-5 as the leadoff hitter and Mike Smyth provided the power with two two-run homers and a three-run homer for Thunder.

The Glen Club defeated the Golden Coach 9-2 behind the pitching of Erwin Bermundez and the hitting of Rick Moreno and Vince Breining, the latter 4 for 4.

Greco Bar Supplies shut out Baders Raiders 20-0. Greco Bar had two grandslam homers from Larry Sylvester and Gary Ciardella sparked Greco's victory.

The Wreck Em's wrecked the S.F. Security Traders' bid for its first victory by downing them 16-6. "Joltin" Joel Carrara hit two homers and "Leapin" Leighton AhPo had a single, double and triple to spark the Wrecker's win. "Bench" Eichelberger played some good defense for the winners.

CANCO busted the Hookers 22-4. Chuck Backus and Ed Houlihan each had four hits for CANCO. George Marcillac's glove stopped two Hooker invitations to rallies.

The B of A Vets stopped J & J's long winning streak with a 5-2 victory. Frank Hunt's Vets were everything but disabled in this game as they plugged every hole to down the Plumbers and snake their way to victory. G.I. "Tito" Rodriquez pitched a good game and Al Gilmore continued his fine hitting.

Greg McQueen's B of A Rooks edged IRS 12-8 with the aid of 2 big homers by Bob Uren and Don Schaeffer. Corpus Christi preyed on the Western Dental Ducks 3-2 and had duck under glass. Paul Cruz had three hits for the winners.

The bat of Rich Monteleone provided the Emanons with their margin of victory as he connected for a 3-run homer. The Henchmen scored all five of their runs in the first inning and saw their lead continually dwindle away.

The hitting of Milt Panogatakis, Frank Arbelloa and Dave Boston led Nestle to its fourth straight win as it counted out a tough Count Down club 4-2. Ron Raeta pitched an excellent two-hitter for the Plumbers.

The Pomona Casuals rolled over the Whispers 9-1.

Hot Gunners Upset Celts In D.C. Cage

The Gunners, led by hot outside shooting by Ted Scott and fine inside play by Al Fortis, upset the favored Celtics 43-40 in a hard-fought semi-final play-off game in the Daly City Summer Basketball League.

The Gunners, down by six at the half, throttled the Celtic offense in the final quarter, outscoring them 11-5 to claim the close victory. Gunner Ted Scott copped high game honors with 19, while Al Fortis added 14 for the winners. Darryl Victoria, in another fine effort for the Celtics, scored 17, while Dave Navarrez tossed in 13.

The Gunners challenge OLM in the championship finals tonight at 8 at Westmoor High School. OLM finished first in regular season play.

In consolation action the fast-breaking Sleezes stopped the Superstars 75-49. Brian McEvoy topped all scores with 21 while Peter Robinson and Paul Walsh added 19 apiece. Tim Summers was the scoring standout for the Superstars with 16. Keith Pult and Mark Rud finished with 12 apiece.

Sleezes will meet the Beavers in the consolation finals at 7 tonight, while the Celtics play the Superstars in the consolation runnerup game at 9.

SMCCVB's Challenge

On Bills

ASSEMBLYMAN LOUIS J. PAPAN was in town this past weekend and held an "end of season" meeting with the press in his Daly City office. For a new legislator, Papan has introduced considerable material, some worthy of mention, others wordy and little else, at least in our opinion.

For example: Papan has his very first law on the books dealing with the wearing of headsets while operating a motor vehicle. Our question isa: what happens if you're wearing earmuffs in the cold f Lake Tahoe?

THEN, THERE IS his Assembly Bill 1083 designed to protect the privacy of motorists who don't want just ANYBODY going over their license applications. The way it is now, we understand, a person's application (for a small fee) can be scrutinized in Sacramento. Not only can those nosy people see what kind of driver you are, they can obtain all sorts of personal material about you from the application — color of eyes, complexion, et al. With Papan's new law, if passed, a person would have to sign before anyone could get a gander at those apilications. Of course if you refuse to sign, say for an insurance company, it would bt a classic case of the judge asking "Do you intend to beat your wife arain?" Because without that signature they would probably think you're trying to hide something and . . . well, you take it from there.

ANOTHER BILL WE remember that Papan participated in was his "karate sticks" legislation. The "nunchaku" is a weapon used by nuts of one ethnic group or another and consists of two lengths of sticks secured by a piece of chain or rope. There have been many cases of these weapons being used in fatal beatings of late around the state. But for our money, when nunchakus are outlawed only outlaws will have nunchakus.

FLASHY FLASH — Engineer Bill Chapman did it! He brought that swimming pool bid in at under $600,000 after the high school district and Daly City city council gave him an "under $700,000" to work with. The last time the pool went out for bid it came back in about $300,000 over. Before that, under a different engineer-architect (who shall remain nameless) the bid came in at $1.3 million. Little inside joke going around the City Hall is that Chapman was able to pull off the deal redesigning the pool — he made it only two and a half feet deep. (Actually, it is standard Olympic depth.)

THIS IS THE TRUTH — So help me folks! I actually saw a BART train flashing into the Daly City station at the Knowles Avenut terminus. And it didn't even smash into the sand pile at the end of track. I wouldn't hurry over to catch a train, just yet. It won't be in full operation until (keep those fingers crossed) October 1973.

BACK TO PAPAN — In all fairness, Assemblyman Papan is working like all get out to have some meaningful legislation passed to aid elderly homeowners, especially at tax time. In the past, those seniors that owned their homes were penalized when applying for certain State and Federal benefits. New legislation backed by Papan and others will cut out this nonsense.

OLD GARBAGE JOKE used to go: "How's business these days?" To which the scavengers would reply: "Picking up." Sounds out of line today.

JESD AND DALY CITY had an amicable meeting the other day — first in years — about redoing the parking lot at Fernando Rivera school. The lot is now very small and those big busses have to manuever around small children when school lets out during the season. Glad to see the two parties getting together on these problems.

THE FLAT OF MY SWORD to those people who dump their garbage on the slopes of Mt. San Bruno. We don't like the stuff piling up around our home either, but we'll be darned if we'll pollute the country side with our leavings. Be a good citizen and bag the stuff in plastic containers (sold cheaply in markets), tie the top securely and take it down to Mussel Rock for disposing. If it can be trucked to San Bruno Mountain it can be trucked down to the proper spot — the dump. And it IS free.

THERE MUST BE a food shortage or something up in Daly City because we haven't spotted as many shopping carts discarded in the road, on lawns, in driveways, against parked cars and in the middle of the roadway.

And we want to give praise to that young fella we saw delivering newspapers from a special cart made for delivering newspapers. We believe that the abandoned cart population cluttering tht streets could be halved if more newsboys used these special carts.

LOOKALIKES — Bruce Gray, assemblyman Papan's flakman, and Dustin Hoffman. (He didn't fool me. Gray doesn't walk with a limp a la "Midnight Cowboy.")

Watergate

Watergate!

Newsweek's columnist Gary Hart believes its greatest implication is that Richard Nixon and his associates never trusted the American people.

Historian Henry Steele Commager thinks it may be the catharsis necessary to cleanse our political system of a kind of politics that has been mistreating the integrity, stability and vitality of the American political system. He writes "Watergate may enable us to see how abuses of power transform the tissues of our national life."

Commager lists the principles which must be restored:

Respect for the law and the majestic concept of due process.

Respect for the principle that, in Republican governments, it is the people who set the limits of power.

Respect for the Bill of Rights, not only as the great shield of freedom but as the instrument of that freedom, without which the republic cannot flourish.

Respect for the principle of the separation of powers.

Respect for the principle that the power to declare war and the power of the purse are and should be lodged in the legislative, not the executive branch.

Respect for the intelligence and sensitiveness for the honor of the American people.

"No other administration in American history," writes Commager, who knows more American history than any other citizen, "has so ostentatiously violated these principles."

Irving Kristol, a friend of President Nixon who has been called a "Nixon intellectual," finds that the thing that makes Watergate so extraordinary "is the sense that practically the entire White House staff, and perhaps even the President himself, have been living in a different world from the rest of us."

He writes that the Nixon administration seems to have forgotten that "people need to feel they understand their government, even if they find some of its behavior shocking. An irrational government is the citizen's ultimate nightmare."

Still another historian, Arthur Schlesinger Jr., who has spent his career studying the Presidency, sees as an outgrowth of Watergate that, "It will be many, many years before another White House staff will dare take the liberties with the Constitution and the laws that the Nixon White House has taken."

Schlesinger warns the American people that they must resolve to "discover a middle ground between making the President a czar and making him a puppet." He believes that we need a strong presidency within the Constitution. "There is only one place to begin. That is by showing Presidents that, when their closest associates violate the laws and the Constitution, such transgressions will be not forgiven and forgotten for the sake of the presidency, but exposed and punished for the sake of the presidency."

Each of the above articles may be found in the July-August issue of "Current" magazine. This is a reprint magazine devoted to "new thinking from all sources on the frontier problems today." The magazine contains articles about the Watergate 'mess as well as sections from the thoughts of profound writers upon a variety of problems.

Senator Sam, Lady Bird Donate to Demo Picnic

U.S. Senator Sam Irvin and Mrs. Lady Bird Johnson are two of the famous contributors to the North County Democratic Association's old-fashioned picnic-fund-raiser Saturday, in San Bruno Park.

The event "Democrats 4 '74" will be from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mrs. Johnson has sent an autographed sketch of the Johnson Ranch and Senator Irvin has autographed a copy of the U.S. Constitution especially for the afternoon caution, according to picnic chairwoman Norma Corey.

Invitations have been sent to all Democratic candidates for governor and to California's state and national representatives.

San Mateo County legislators Congressman Leo J. Ryan, State Senator Arlen Gregorio and Assemblyman Louis Papan plan to attend. State Senator George Moscone, one of the gubernatorial candidates, has also accepted. Moscone will autograph a picnic poster for the auction.

Congressman Jerome Waldie, also a candidate for governor, cannot attend but will send a representative. U.S. Senator John Tunney has announced that he will make every effort to appear.

The NCDA is asking for a contribution to the association, which will entitle the donor to a lunch of hot dogs, salad, coffee and a chance on the door prizes. Events of the day also will include a raffle, entertainment by "Lion," a San Bruno rock group, games for children and a voter registration table.

The Post gives its columnists a great deal of latitude, offering its readers the benefit of knowledgeable, varying opinion. Their opinions are not necessarily those of The Post which addresses itself to its readers only through clearly marked editorials.

Skillful Cross-Exams Central to Testimony

The right of cross-examination is central to ascertaining the truth as to any disputed question of fact. The skillful cross-examiner has at his command a variety of means to discredit and transform the effect of direct testimony.

Well done, cross-examination can thoroughly test the memory of a witness. While it is always proper for a person giving testimony to qualify the condition of his recollection, e.g. "I don't remember," "I believe it to be so." "I am certain," it is also possible for the cross-examiner to thoroughly probe that condition.

Thus a man who remembers part of a conversation or meeting can be required to explain why he cannot recall all of what was said or done. The witness who remembers vividly events of two years ago, but cannot recall a conversation of the much more recent past can find his convenient failure of memory under serious attack.

The "dropped" fact can be fully examined. These are usually picked up by an alert examiner when a witness alludes to an event, but fails to elaborate with the same exactness as with other information. Related facts which are not mentioned at all in direct examination can be brought to light.

The demeanor of a witness under close pursuit is often valuable in determining his verity and the condition of his recollection. His character and background can be disclosed.

The witness can be required to fully expose all he knows about an event. Careful questioning can often produce inconsistencies within the testimony of the witness, as well as make it impossible for the narrative of later or earlier witnesses to square up with the instant account.

The opportunity of the witness to observe can be thoroughly tested. All too often witnesses quite innocently relate matters as truth, when their perspective made direct knowledge unlikely or impossible.

A competent cross-examination can also be used to bring out facts favorable to the case of the examiner. Some able technicians have succeeded in building entire defenses from the mouths of hostile witnesses.

Finally, the lie can be confronted in many ways. Some good cross-examinations have served to make the false statement stand out as absurd and unbelievable. Other false statements have been done in by piecemeal removal of the logical base of such testimony. Some liars have been forced to recant, others to turn, twist and adjust to indispensable truth.

Confrontation and cross-examination have been essentially absent from the Senate Watergate hearings. This column has previously noted the deficiency, and as the hearings continue, the lack of adverse examination becomes more painfully apparent.

The right to submit written questions is pale indeed, when compared with full examination. It is as though a chess player could give a stand-in a list of moves at the beginning of a game with no opportunity to adjust play to an opponent's game.

Dean Wigmore, the ultimate authority on the law of evidence said, "Cross-examination is beyond doubt the greatest legal engine ever invented for the discovery of the truth." It is a living art, and at times becomes a fencing match that pits one man against another. Nuances can be followed, irritation or embarrassment can be exploited, words can be torn apart. Some examinations amount to an assault upon a doubtful witness and his veracity. Attack, attack, attack! This cannot be done with written questions.

The Senatorial proceedings have been a forum for attack on the President of the United States. But without full and fair examination of witnesses, all testimony is inconclusive, and this is the problem created by Senator Ervin's hearings. As presently structured, they can focus the white hot light of public attention on facts that deserve disclosure, but they decide nothing and have no logical end. At no point do accused and accusers say "I rest," and at no point in these proceedings can the Senators treat the matter as over and come to judgment.

Senator Erwin recognizes this, and has clearly stated the limitations of the committee as the trier of facts and determiner of truth. What he has failed to perceive however, is that many members of the public lack his sophistication and are rendering judgment as each day passes. In this way, the Senator, whose past writings and speeches display great respect for the constitutinal process risks runaway prejudgment and unfairness.

THE MARQUEE

Musical of Emperor Norton Only Mildly Entertaining

The legend of Joshua A. Norton, self proclaimed Emperor of all the Americas has long fascinated San Francisco sentimentalists. As a flamboyant character who dressed in a military costume and lived from taxes he collected on the streets from his "subjects," the once prosperous businessman-turned-dotty has been immortalized in many forms.

As an aspiring teenage actress, I formed a company titled "The Emperor Players" and remembered that with fondness last night at a new version of his place in the city's history as I viewed the musical "Montgomery Street" in the Ralston Room of the Sheraton-Palace Hotel. It is only mildly entertaining.

Jack Brooks of San Bruno, founder of the American Musical Theater and Academy, first wrote, directed and produced the show on the Peninsula in 1969 under the title, "The Golden Reign." But it still needs a lot of work to polish, trim and give it the necessary impact for a professional show. Right now, it's got some good things going for it but not enough. Its inconsistencies include attractive costumes and terrible lighting.

The musical score by Robert Bendorff with lyrics by Messrs. Bendorff and Brooks has a sameness. There are too many scenes and songs in the first act and the score's overall style ranges from sea chanty to rinky tink might be improved with a better orchestra, namely the trumpet player.

Set against a painted backdrop of wooden buildings and wooden sidewalks along Montgomery Street in 1867, the 21 member cast sings and dances that phase of Norton's life when he issued edicts, named himself Protector of Mexico and demanded imperial privileges. It's a slice of San Francisciana in that the book follows the little known facts of his years in that city, from his lodgings at the Eureka Boarding House on Commercial Street to his arrest for lunacy and subsequent trial. He died in 1880 and his body was moved in 1934, under the auspices of the Pacific Union Club, to Woodlawn Cemebery where the town fool was accorded a military burial and tombstone.

Brooks' two act musical needs more verve and flamboyance. Despite Roland Scrivner's dignified portrayal of Norton, the character lacks color. And the script is notably lacking in humour. It drones on at a snail's pace, brightened only by the farcical trio of Brooks as a charlatan medicine man and his clownish sidekicks, Martin Meredith and Edward Rabak of San Mateo.

Rebecca Olivia Jones is a pretty soprano who plays the romantic lead, a bar girl at the Bella Union who falls in love with the leading newspaper's reporter, Ayers Baxter. She has a lovely voice and moves gracefully, although I feel her Agnes DeMille-type solo ballet is ill suited to the story.

"NOTHING TAKES THE PLACE OF LEATHER"

Answers to Frequent Questions

Q. Why are some leathers more expensive than others?

A. Quality leathers are expensive because they have so many hidden details. They are made with choice, top grade skins, the pick of the packs. Each garment is matched and cut by hand to assure perfect color blending, uniformity of weight and texture. Other differences in QUALITY garments are the interlinings, reinforced tapes at stress points, seams that are both stitched and cemented, hand pressings at every single stage. These ensure better shape, better fit and lasting wear.

Q. What about cleaning? Isn't that expensive, too?

A. No. Cleaning costs compare favorably with costs for fine woolens. Since spots, stains and surface soil wash right off, cleaning shouldn't be necessary more than once a year. So, leather is actually less expensive to maintain.

Q. Is leather water-repellent?

A. Yes. The special finishes added to the skins during the tanning process make it resist water. When a leather garment gets wet, just hang it up to dry.

Q. What season is best for leather?

A. Leather is comfortable all year 'round. Its hundreds of tiny pores keep the weather out and let the air in. It breathes, making it ideal for any climate.

Q. Isn't leather perishable?

A. Smooth grain leather is hardy, husky and always stays handsome. Connoisseurs feel that it improves with age. All it needs is a little understanding and a little care to provide years of lasting wear.

Q. Why should I buy a leather garment?

A. Because real grain leather is so fashionable, yet at the same time so practical. Fashionable for the natural elegance that's virtually a status symbol. Practical for its travel-wise hardiness . . . its easy self-care . . . its long life that makes it such a value.
